TO THE CREDITORS OF THOMAS KIRKALDIE, jun. Merchant in Dunfermline.

Intimation is hereby given, that James Moodie, merchant in Dunfermline, having been chosen trustee on the estate of the said Thomas Kirkaldie, his appointment has been confirmed by the Court of Session; and the Sheriff of Fifeshire has, upon his application, fixed Thursday the 16th, at 12 o'clock noon, and Thursday the 20th days of December next, at 10 o'clock forenoon, for the public examination of the bankrupt, within the Court House of Cupar. The trustee further intimates, that a meeting of the creditors is to be held at Dunfermline, upon Friday the 31st of December next, at 12 o'clock noon, within M'Lean's new inn, for the purpose of instructing the trustee as to the management and recovery of the estate; and he hereby requires the creditors, to produce their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths on the verity thereof, at said meeting, on or betwixt and the 24th day of June next, being ten months from the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration; certifying those creditors who fail to do so, that they will have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate.

CREDITORS OF CHARLES BARBER, Esq.
DECEASED.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain, made in a cause, "COCKERELL against BARBER," the Creditors of Charles Barber, late of Calcutta, at Fort William, in Bengal, in the East Indies, Esq. deceased (who died in the Strand, in the county of Middlesex, in the month of August 1799), are, on or before the 25th day of March, 1803 to come in and prove their debts before John Spranger, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton Buildings, Chancery Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said decree.

MARGARET BARBER.

Whereas, by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain, made in a cause, "COCKERELL against BARBER," it was, amongst other things, referred to John Spranger, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire whether Margaret Barber, late of the Strand, in the county of Middlesex, widow, the mother of Charles Barber, late of Calcutta, at Fort William, in Bengal, Esq. deceased, the testator therein named (who died in the Strand, in the county of Middlesex, in the month of August 1799), and mentioned in his will, is dead; and, if dead, when he died; and in case he survived the said testator, who is or are her personal representative or personal representatives; and in case it should appear that the said Margaret Barber died in the lifetime of the said testator, then that the said Master should enquire who was or were the next of kin of the said testator at the time of his death.

The said Margaret Barber, if living, is, on or before the 25th day of March, 1803, to come in before the said Master, at his chambers in Southampton Buildings, Chancery Lane, London; and, if dead, any person who can give information with respect to the time of her death, is by the time aforesaid to come in and give such information accordingly. And in case the said Margaret Barber, survived the said testator, Charles Barber, the personal representative or personal representatives of the said Margaret Barber is or are to come in by the time aforesaid, before the said Master, at his Chambers aforesaid, and prove their being such personal representative or personal representatives: And in case the said Charles Barber, his mother, then the next of kin of the said Charles Barber, by the time aforesaid, to come in and prove their said relationship before the said Master; and in default of such next of kin so coming in before the said Master, and proving their said relationship, by the time aforesaid, they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said decree.

GEORGE BARBER, otherwise GEORGE TALBOT BARBER.

Whereas, by a decree of the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain, made in a cause, "COCKERELL against BARBER," it was, amongst other things, referred to John Spranger, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire whether George Barber, otherwise George Talbot Barber, the brother of Charles Barber, late of Calcutta, at Fort William, in Bengal, Esquire, deceased, the testator therein named (who died in the Strand, in the county of Middlesex, in the month of August 1799), and mentioned in his will, is dead; and, if dead, when he died; and in case he survived the testator, who is or are his personal representative or personal representatives; and, if he died intestate, who is or are his next of kin. The said George Barber, if living, is, on or before the 25th day of March, 1803, to come in before the said Master at his chambers, in Southampton Buildings, Chancery Lane, London; and, if dead, any person who can give information with respect to the time of his death, is by the time aforesaid to come in, and give such information accordingly; and in case the said George Barber survived the said testator, Charles Barber, the personal representative or personal representatives of the said George Barber is or are to come in by the time aforesaid, before the said Master, at his chambers aforesaid, and prove their being such personal representative or personal representatives. And if the said George Barber died intestate, his next of kin are in the like manner, by the time aforesaid, to come in and prove their relationship to the said George Barber; and in default of such next of kin so coming in before the said Master, and proving their said relationship, by the time aforesaid, they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said decree.

N. B. The above-named George Barber is supposed to have gone into the East India Company's service, at Bombay, as a recruit, several years ago, under the name of Talbot, and to have died at Bombay on the 27th of August 1800.

TO THE CREDITORS OF MESS. RICHMOND & FREEBAIRN,

Merchants and Insurance Brokers in Edinburgh. The first dividend of the funds of these bankrupts has been necessarily delayed, owing to the general rule of distribution among the underwriters and common creditors having remained some time unfixed: But the Court of Session having unanimously decided, that the trustee, who is at the same time factor for the underwriting creditors, shall pay the underwriters preferably to the common creditors, from the premiums which, at the time of the bankruptcy, had remained unapplied in the hands of the insured; and that judgment being now final, a general meeting of the creditors, to authorize a division of the recovered funds, and to see a state of those unapplied, and of the affairs in general, will be held in the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 29th December current, at one o'clock.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
THE deceased Dr THOMAS STEVENSON, Physician in Ayr.

The creditors of the said Dr Thomas Stevenson are requested to produce their interests in the Clerk's hands betwixt and the 15th of January next, with certification, in obedience to an interdict of the Lord Polkmett, Ordinary, dated 11th December current, in the ranking of the creditors of the said Dr Thomas Stevenson.

NOTICE

CHARLES CAMPBELL, Merchant in Glasgow, has made up states of the sequestrated estates of M'CALLUM & AULD, to the 4th instant, in terms of law; which lie at his counting-house for the inspection of all concerned. Upon the 5th February next, he requests a general meeting of the creditors, to get their dividends, and give instructions as to the future management.—GLASGOW, Dec. 13. 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF SAMUEL RAMSAY, Merchant, Glasgow.

The said Samuel Ramsay having applied to the Court of Session, with concurrence of the trustee on his sequestrated estate, and of some fifth of his whole creditors, both in number and value, for the discharge of all his debts, both as a partner of the Company of Ramsay, Strachan, Graham, and Co. late of Glasgow, and as an individual, contracted previous to 30th December 1801, by their interdict, issued 9th December next, appointing that application to be considered on the walls of the Inner and Outer House, and to be advertised in the Edinburgh Gazette, that all persons having interest might be thereto, if they might think fit: In consequence whereof this notice is given.—Edinb. Dec. 11. 1802.
