TO THE CREDITORS OF

GEORGE CHAPMAN, Merchant in Montrose.

Offer of a Composition.—The trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said George Chapman hereby intimates, that at a meeting of said creditors, held here this day, the bankrupt made offer of a composition, at the rate of one shilling per pound, for a discharge of his whole just and lawful debts, payable by acceptances, with security, approved of by the meeting, at six and twelve months, by equal proportions; and that, by desire of said meeting, another general meeting of the creditors is to be held here, in Hunter's Tavern, on Saturday the 15th January next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of finally deciding upon the above offer in terms of law.
MONTROSE, Dec. 17. 1802.

NOTICE TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES DUNCAN, of Easter Broadwell,
Corn-dealer, and lately residing in Perth.

That upon the application of a creditor to the extent required by law, the Lord Ordinary (sitting on the bench), this day sequestrated the whole estate, heritable and moveable, real and personal, belonging to the said James Duncan, and appointed his creditors to meet at Perth, within the house of Peter McDougall, vintner here, upon Tuesday the 4th day of January 1803, at 12 o'clock noon, to chuse an interim factor; and on Tuesday the 25th day of the said month and year, at the same place, to chuse a trustee: Of which intimation hereby made in terms of the statute.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
JAMES M'DUFF, Wright at Tomnagrew.
States of the said James M'Duff's affairs lie with Charles Husband, writer in Perth, the trustee, by whom the first dividend of said estate will be paid, at his writing office, upon the 21st of January next.

CREDITORS OF
SIMON FRASER, Builder in Edinburgh.
The trustee having now obtained himself intrest in Mr Fraser's heritable property, in terms of the directions of the meeting of 2d June last, and taken the advice of counsel upon several points which appeared attended with difficulty, respecting the affairs, a full meeting of the creditors is now requested, to give their final directions for the disposal and sale of the property, and also to consider and direct what further measures should be adopted respecting the affairs of the bankrupt in general. The meeting is to be held in the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, upon Wednesday the fifth day of January next, at two o'clock afternoon.

NOTICE.
THE Creditors of DAVID BRYDEN,
Writer and Merchant, late in Beith, are required to meet, in the house of John Wilson, vintner, Beith, on Friday the 7th day of January next, at 12 o'clock noon, to consider of an offer of composition made by the bankrupt, and not considered of; and to instruct the trustee, or discharge the sequestration, as may be judged most expedient.
ROB. CALDWELL, Trustee.
LOCHWINNOCH, 13th Dec. 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
WILLIAM GRANT, Merchant in Arbroath.

William Colvill, writer in Arbroath, trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said William Grant, having been confirmed by the Court, hereby gives notice, that the Sheriff of Forfarshire has fixed Thursday 6th, and Friday 21st January next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the public examination of the bankrupt, and others concerned with his business, within the Sheriff Court-room of Forfar, and that a meeting of the creditors will be held at the same place, upon Saturday 22d of said month of January next, at 12 o'clock noon, for instructing the trustee as to the management and recovery of the estates. The trustee further requires such creditors as have not already produced their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereof, to lodge the same with him, at or previous to said meeting: And he hereby intimates, that unless the said productions are made between and till August next, being ten months after the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate.
December 17 1802.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
M'CULLOCH & M'TYER, Shoemakers in Glasgow.
Daniel McMillan, shoemaker in Glasgow, the trustee, requests a meeting, in the office of Mess. McNayr and Elder, writers, Glasgow, on Thursday the 6th of January 1803, at 12 o'clock noon, to consider of an offer of composition made by the bankrupts.

NOTICE.
MALCOLM MACFARLANE, cotton spinner
at Busby, trustee on the sequestrated estate of THOMAS MOFFAT, late Cotton Spinner at Busby, requests a meeting of the creditors of the said Thomas Moffat, within the writing chambers of Benjamin Mathie, Hutcheson Street, Glasgow, upon the 10th January next, at one o'clock afternoon, to give directions as to the future management of the bankrupt's estate. A state of the bankrupt's affairs, made up in terms of the statute, lies open for the inspection of the creditors, in the hands of the said Benjamin Mathie.—The funds realized will still yield no dividend to the creditors.
MALCOM MACFARLANE.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
JAMES BOWACK, Cattle Dealer, some time in Smiddyhill, thereafter in Pitforthie.
In obedience to an interlocutor of the Court of Session, dated the 16th inst. intimation is hereby given, that the said James Bowack, with the concurrence of the trustee on his sequestrated estate, and four-fifths in number and value of his creditors, has applied to their Lordships for a discharge, in terms of the statute of the 33d of his present Majesty, of all debts contracted by him prior to the date of the sequestration; and that the Court, at the distance of three months from this date, will resume the consideration of, and determine upon the merits of the said application.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
TERENCE M'IVER, late Merchant in Edinburgh.
Such persons as have claims against the said Terence M'Iver are requested, on or before the 19th day of January next, to lodge the same, with oaths of verity thereon, in the hands of Andrew Peebles, merchant, High Street, Glasgow, trustee upon his estate, otherwise they will have no share in the division of the funds recovered.
