Walter Hog, accountant in Edinburgh, trustee upon the sequestrated estates of Messrs Francis Garbett and Co. late of Carron Wharf, and of Mr Charles Cascoigne, one of the partners of that company, hereby intimates to the creditors on these sequestrated estates, that he is to submit to their consideration, at the annual general meeting of the creditors, to be held in the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon the 10th day of January 1803, at one o'clock afternoon, a proposal which has been made to him by Mr James Gibson, writer to the signet, agent for John Minyer of London, Esq. executor of the deceased William Pocock of Newgate-street, London, Esq. for compromising a question which has long depended in the Court of Session, respecting the validity of an assignment of nine shares of the stock in Carron Company, standing in Mr Cascoigne's name, granted by him while factor for the first trustees on these sequestrated estates, to the said William Pocock, in security of a debt due to him by Francis Garbett and Co.

The purport of Mr Minyer's proposal is, that on his receiving one half of the balance of the debt remaining due to him as on the 1st of April last (which half he states at L. 1736 6s. 3d.), and being ranked on the funds of Francis Garbett and Co. and Charles Cascoigne for the other half, so as to draw therefrom the dividends hereafter to be declared, he will immediately convey to the trustee, for behoof of the creditors, all right which he has to the said nine shares of Carron Company's stock, and to the dividends thereon remaining unpaid since 31st December 1776 inclusive, and which now amount to a large sum. The trustee therefore requests a full attendance of the creditors, by themselves or their doers properly authorized, at the general meeting on 10th January 1803, in order to determine whether Mr Minyer's proposal ought to be accepted or rejected. Such creditors as do not then attend personally, or by their proxies, will be held as acquiescing in whatever resolution the meeting shall adopt upon said proposal.
