

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday August 9, to Tuesday August 12, 1760.

Whitehall, July 26, 1760.

Whereas a Corn Mill in the Parish of Woolwich in the County of Kent, was, on the 16th Day of March last, supposed to be wickedly and maliciously set on Fire, and consumed; His Majesty, in order to bring the Offender, or Offenders to Justice, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein (except the Person, who actually set the said Mill on Fire) so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. PITT.

And as a farther Encouragement for apprehending and bringing to Justice such Offenders, the Proprietors of the said Corn-Mill, do hereby offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except the Person who actually set the said Corn-Mill on Fire) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of them, by us

Will. Scott.
William Boorne.

General Post Office, April 12, 1760.

Publick Notice is hereby given, That, for the Time to come, no Person whatsoever will be permitted to pass from England, in any of the King's Packet Boats, stationed at Harwich or Dover, without first obtaining a Passport from one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

All Persons, intending to return to England in the said Packet-Boats, are in like Manner to produce a Passport from His Majesty's Minister at the Hague; or from His Majesty's Consul or Vice-Consul at Flushing, before they can be received on Board.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Henry Potts, Secretary.

General Post-Office, July 7, 1760.
