Dublin, October 28.

Thursday last, being the Anniversary of the Irish Rebellion in 1644, their Excellencies went in the usual State to Christ Church, escorted by a Squadron of Dragoons, where they heard a most excellent Sermon, preached by the Rev. Doctor Edward Ledwich, upon that Occasion. The Sword of State was carried to and from the Church by Lord Headfort. After their Excellencies Return to the Castle, the Great Guns in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired Three Rounds, and answered by Volleys of small Arms from the Regiments in Garrison, drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks.

The Order of Thomas Earl of Effingham, Deputy Earl Marshal of England.

IN Pursuance of an Order of Council, dated the 3d of this Instant November, the Solemnity of the Interment of His late Majesty King George the Second is appointed to be performed on Tuesday next: These are therefore to give public Notice, That all Persons on this Occasion are to alight at Westminster-Hall Gate, to which Place they are to return to their Coaches or Chairs after the Ceremony is over; and that the Peers of Great Britain and Ireland, Privy Councillors and Judges are desired to meet in the House of Lords at Seven of the Clock in the Evening; at which Time all other Persons mentioned in the printed Ceremonial, do attend in the Painted Chamber, where they will be marshalled and put in Order by the Officers of Arms appointed for that Purpose.

And all Persons are required to take Notice, That in Order to prevent any Interruption to the Funeral, no Coaches are to be admitted to stay, or come into the New Palace Yard after Five of the Clock in the Afternoon of the said Day; and that the Lights in all the Places and Passages be not extinguished until the whole Ceremony is over, and the Company returned to their Coaches or Chairs.

And that the White Staff Officers being by Act of Parliament continued in their respective Offices, are not to break their Staves as has been formerly practised.

That all the Knights of the Garter, Thistle, and of the Bath, who shall walk in this Procession, are to wear the Collars of their respective Orders.

EFFINGHAM, M.

Whereas the great Difficulty of finding the Places of Abode in Town of many of the Peers of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and of Ireland, makes it almost impossible to send a Summons to every Individual; it is hoped and desired, that all such Peers and others, named in the Ceremonial, will accept of this General Notice, and attend His late Majesty's Funeral at Seven of the Clock on Tuesday Evening the 11th Instant, at the respective Places appointed for them.

Navy-Office, October 23, 1760.

The Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of July to the 31st of December 1759, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf;

These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, on Monday the 10th of November, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, and continued the following Day, beginning at the same Hour, (after which the Lists will be recalled only once a Month) That all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Victualling-Office, November 3, 1760.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, That on Wednesday the 12th Instant, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat for Oxen for fresh Meat for His Majesty's Ships at Portsmouth, for three Months, to commence the 1st of December next, for the Service of His Majesty's Navy.

General Post Office, April 12, 1760.

Publick Notice is hereby given, That, for the Time to come, no Person whatsoever will be permitted to pass from England, in any of the King's Packet Boats, stationed at Harwich or Dover, without first obtaining a
