fection, to take our Share in the universal Joy of your People, by offering to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations on your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

We thankfully acknowledge the peculiar Favour of Providence to our Church and Nation, in raising up in your Majesty's Royal House, the most steady Guardians and Defenders of our Religion, our Laws and Liberties: And it is with the same pious Sentiments of Gratitude, that we see your Majesty succeeding to the Government of a free and happy Nation, adorned with all those Princely Virtues, that Love of Religion, that declared Zeal to enforce its Influence by your Royal Authority and Example, that Attention to the Laws and Constitution of your Country, which as they are the firmest Foundation of the Stability of your Throne, and the strongest Guard of every Thing dear and valuable to us, cannot fail of securing to your Majesty the Hearts and Affections of your People.

Permit us on our Part to assure your Majesty, that it is our fixed Resolution, as we know it to be our Duty, to second your Royal Cares in the Support of Virtue and Religion, to instil into the Minds of those committed to our Charge every Principle of Duty to God, to your Majesty, and to their Country; and to do every Thing, which becomes our Station and our Character, to make your Majesty's Reign as easy and as glorious to yourself, as we trust it will be happy to your People.

And as the best Testimony of the Sincerity of these our solemn Professions, we beg Leave to declare to your Majesty, that we shall make it our constant Prayer to Heaven, that the King of Kings may watch over your Sacred Life; that by the Favour of His Providence your Majesty may long continue a Blessing to your People; and that after a happy and prosperous Reign, the Evening of your Days may close with the same Splendor and Dignity as that of your Illustrious Grandfather.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the Ancient City of Peterborough.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the Ancient City of Peterborough, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty the sincere Expressions of our Sorrow and Affliction for the Death of our late most excellent Sovereign, whose Name and Memory will be ever dear to us, as long as we retain a Sense of those Blessings, which, by the Wisdom and Steadiness of his Government, we have long enjoyed in Happiness and Security.

Permit us at the same Time, with all Humility, to congratulate your Majesty on your peaceable and happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms; and to express to your Majesty, our warmest Sentiments of Joy, upon an Event, which assures to your People

People the continued Enjoyment of every Thing dear and valuable to us.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration, that you will make it the Business of your Life, to promote in every Thing the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, has filled every Heart with the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's Love and Affection to your People; and it is with the firmest Assurance that we depend upon your Majesty's gracious Promises, to preserve and strengthen our Constitution in Church and State, when we reflect on those many distinguished Virtues, which adorn your Royal Mind, and form your Majesty to be the Support and Ornament of our Religion by your Example, and in every Instance to be the tender Father of your People, by a steady Attention to their Laws and Liberties.

We beg Leave, in Return for these gracious Expressions of your Goodness to your People, to assure your Majesty, that nothing on our Part shall be wanting, to shew our Fidelity and Affection to your Person and Government; that we will, upon all Occasions, pay a cheerful Obedience to the Laws, and give every Testimony of the Sense we have of our Happiness, by discharging every Duty of Loyalty and Gratitude to your Majesty.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, Merchants and Citizens of the City of Corke, having been transmitted to His Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, Merchants and Citizens of the City of Corke.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Permit us, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects of the City of Corke, to condole with your Majesty the Loss of your Kingdoms have sustained by the sudden and unexpected Decease of your Royal Grandfather, who lived a true and benevolent Father to his Subjects, most justly beloved and honoured, and sincerely regretted by them, for his Eminent and Royal Virtues; who made the most distant Parts of the World feel and tremble at the British Power; and whose Reign was a continued Scene of Victory, Conquest, and Glory.

Permit us, Royal Sire, at the same Time to congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, with one Voice and Consent; and with all hearty and humble Affection, we acknowledge all Subjection, Faith and Obedience to your Majesty; and, with the warmest Zeal, we beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our Lives and Fortunes in Support of your Royal Person, Crown and Dignity.

And since it hath pleased Almighty God to take to Himself our late Gracious Sovereign, of Blessed Memory, we cannot enough adore and praise the Divine Being, for giving us a King of the same Illustrious Line, born among us; whose early and affectionate Declaration to promote the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, and to preserve and strengthen the Constitution in Church and State, gives us the fullest Assurances of every Thing that a free and loyal People can hope from the best of Kings.

And we beseech Almighty God to crown your Majesty's Arms with Success in the prosecuting of the present just and necessary War, to the bringing on an honourable and lasting Peace, and to bless your Majesty, our Royal Sovereign George the Third, with long and happy Years to reign over us.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the City of Corke to be hereunto affixed, this Fourteenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty:

The following address of the Archbishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of St. Peter in York, together with the Clergy of the City and Diocese of York, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of St. Peter in York, together with the Clergy of the City and Diocese of York, with all Humility beg Leave to lay ourselves at your Majesty's Feet, in most sincere Condoleance for the Loss of your Majesty's Great Predecessor, your Royal Grandfather, under whose Fatherly, and just, and mild Government, we have had the Happiness to see the Laws, the Liberty, and Religion of our Country securely protected at Home, and as successfully as vigorously defended against all injurious Attempts from Abroad; and from whose Paternal Love of His People, through a happy Series of many Years, we have enjoyed every Comfort and Blessing of Civil Government.

A just Sense of these mighty Benefits, must endear Him to the Remembrance of the present Age, and deliver Him down with distinguished Accumulation of Honour to future Time. The Blow which took Him from us was sudden, the consequent Sorrow universal. We know not where it could have found any Bounds, but in the Contemplation of your Majesty's Virtues, which have out-run the common Course of all Experience; and, as they began to blossom, have ripened into Perfection before their usual Time.

Permit us therefore, Great Sir, with Hearts full of Duty and true Affection, to offer to your Majesty, our most humble Congratulations upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, where, though your Majesty has reigned but, as it were, a Moment, the Evidence so short a Time has produced, of your Majesty's Wisdom, attentive Humanity, and universal Goodness, has Strength and Warmth enough in it, to raise our Spirits, to dry up our Tears, and change our Hopes into a Scene of Certainty full of Joy. Thankful to Providence for the Blessings of the late Reign, we look upon your Majesty's Accession to the Crown of Great Britain as a Sort of Charter renewed, as a new Donation, a fresh Grant and earnest from Heaven of the Divine Favour to these Kingdoms. In your Royal Person, Sir, we see the true Spirit of our Laws, our Liberty, and our most holy Religion, revived; and with infinite Satisfaction, Sir, we see them guarded with every human Defence, in the Virtues of your Royal Mind. May it please God to give your just Authority, and what is still far more powerful, your Great Example, their due Weight and Influence upon the Minds of your People; among whom, we most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, we will not fail to contribute our best Assistance, to support Piety, Virtue, and pure Religion; which your Majesty has most graciously been pleased to declare, shall be further encouraged by Marks of your Royal Favour. And we offer up our most earnest Prayers to the Great Governour of the World, dictated by Hearts full of Duty and Affection, that it may please Him to take your Majesty's Sacred Person into His immediate Protection, to bless you in your going out and coming in, and prosper all your Endeavours for Publick Good. To lengthen your Days to the utmost Period of Human Life, that your Throne may be firmly established in Righteousness. And that when it shall please Him, in His appointed Time, to gather your Majesty to your Fathers, covered with Honour, as we hope and trust, and full of Years, some Prince of your Majesty's most Illustrious and Royal House, together with your Crown, may inherit your Virtues, as long as your Majesty's Subjects of these Kingdoms continue to be a People among the Nations of the Earth.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean, Prebendaries and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Winchester, has been presented to His Majesty Majesty by the most Reverend Father in God the Archbishop of Canterbury: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Winchester, the Dean and Præbendaries of the Cathedral Church, and the Clergy of the said Diocese, to His Majesty George the Third, King of Great Britain, &c.

May it please your Majesty;
TO permit us, your faithful Subjects, to express, in your Royal Presence, the Sentiments of our Hearts, upon an Occasion too interesting for us to neglect.

We mourn an excellent Ruler, suddenly taken out of our Sight, after a Reign of an uncommon Length, uniformly conducted by the strictest Regard to our Laws, under which we have experienced what Liberty and Property truly are. At the same Time we rejoice in the Appearance of One to succeed Him in his high Station over us, who gives us all that pleasing Prospect of a long and happy Series of Years to come, which Youth, guided and adorned by Virtue and Religion, can promise to any Nation in the World. And as this is our Condition, we esteem ourselves bound, by all the Ties of Men and of Christians, to adore and bless the Goodness of that Providence, by the Decrees of which Princes are born, and live, and rule, and are at length succeeded by others, in the same Cares and Sollicitudes for the most important Interests of us and of our Posterity.

We cannot excuse our trespassing farther upon your Majesty's precious Moments, unless it be to say, with the most unfeigned Sincerity of our Souls, May the great God, by whom Kings reign, guide and govern your Majesty's whole Conduct, and by His Influence continue you, through a long Reign, the strongest Example of Virtue to all who see and know you, or hear of your Name; the Patron and Defender of our Constitution in Church and State against the Efforts of Popery and Tyranny; the Restorer of the Peace and Quiet of a much-troubled World; and the Darling of all your Subjects! And may the Allurements of Pomp and Pleasure, peculiar to your exalted Condition, never prevail within your Royal Breast, over the Voice of true Religion, and the true Dignity of your high Station!

Such is the Prayer and Expectation of us your faithful Clergy; and in this, we judge, from many happy present Appearances, that neither we, nor the rising Generation, shall be disappointed.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of St. Asaph, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of St. Asaph.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of St. Asaph, beg Leave, with all Humility, to offer to your Majesty our most hearty Congratulations, upon your happy Accession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration, that you will preserve and strengthen the Constitution in Church and State, claims a Return of the warmest Gratitude, Affection, and Zeal, and alleviates the great Loss which this Nation hath sustained, by the Death of our late most Gracious Sovereign; as You have thereby early and strongly engaged the Confidence of your People, that the same Paternal Care of their Religion, Laws, and Liberties, and that the same Happiness and Glory, will be continued unto them.

Permit us, Sir, to lay our most dutiful and unfeigned Assurances at your Majesty's Feet; that we will, amongst the People entrusted to our Care, make it our earnest and constant Endeavour to cultivate a sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government; and to inculcate those great Principles of Religion and Virtue, which will be the firmest Support of Order, Strength, and Prosperity, in your Kingdoms: And we will never cease to pray to the King of Kings, that He may pour down every Blessing upon your Reign:

Note, In the Gazette of the 15th of November Instant, the following Address was, by Accident, omitted; viz.

Leicester-House, November 12.

This Day the Judges, Advocates, and Proctors of Doctors Commons, waited upon her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales with the following Address: They were introduced by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

We should be guilty of the greatest Injustice to your Royal Highness, if, (whilst we please ourselves with the Prospect of that Happiness which these Nations may hope to enjoy under His Majesty's most auspicious Government) we did not, with the utmost Gratitude, reflect upon, and acknowledge that maternal Care and eminent Prudence which your Royal Highness hath so gloriously exerted in the Cultivation and Improvement of His Majesty's many natural Excellencies.

It shall be our constant Prayer, That His Majesty's Actions may, in the Course of a long and prosperous Reign, ever reflect Honour on your Royal Highness, and encrease and perpetuate the Happiness of these Realms.

They were received very graciously; and all had the Honour to kiss her Royal Highness's Hand.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE the Ministers and Elders of the French and Dutch Protestant Churches of the City of London, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, to condole with your Majesty on the Demise of your Royal Grandfather, whom it hath pleased Almighty God to take to His Mercy.

We bemoan, with the deepest Sorrow, the great Loss which the Subjects of these Kingdoms, as well all Protestants in general, and our Churches in particular, have sustained, by being deprived of such a wise Prince, and powerful Protector; but when we reflect on your Majesty's succeeding to the Throne of these Realms, we have Reason to alleviate our Sorrow, and most heartily to rejoice with the rest of all your Majesty's Subjects, on its having pleased the Divine Providence to place the Crown of your Royal Ancestors on the Head of a Prince, so eminently distinguished for his Piety and Virtues.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to crave your Majesty's gracious Protection for our Churches, as they have enjoyed that of your glorious Predecessors for more than two Centuries, ever since King Edward the Sixth, of blessed Memory, has favoured them with a Royal Charter.

May

May the King of Kings prolong and prosper your Majesty's Reign; may the Lord of Hosts give further Success to your Arms, in order that your Majesty may procure an honourable and lasting Peace; and may the Crowns of these Kingdoms be perpetuated in your Illustrious House, till Time shall be no more. To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

THIS dutiful Address is very acceptable to Me; and you may be assured of My Protection.

Permit us also, Royal Sir, to express our most hearty Joy, and to congratulate your Majesty with all the rest of your loyal Subjects, on your happy Accession to this Throne; and at the same Time humbly to crave your Royal Protection for the Continuance of this Congregation.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the United Brethren in England, in Union with the ancient Protestant Church, known by the Name of Unitas Fratrum.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AMONGST the many loyal and affectionate Addresses, let it not be construed as Presumption in us to hope for a separate Attention of your Royal Mind to the Address of so small a Class of your faithful Subjects, as that known to your Majesty's Royal Predecessors, by the Name of United Brethren.

In all Humility, and with due Resignation to the Dispensations of Divine Providence, we join in condoling with your Sacred Majesty, the deeply affecting Loss which the Nation has sustained in the Person of our late most Gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, of blessed Memory.

But, at the same Time, are thankful to the King of Kings, that He has given us, according to our and the united Prayers of all your faithful Subjects, a King descended from our late most gracious Monarch, and from your late most beloved and Royal Father, whose Memory will ever remain dear to us; and with Hearts full of the profoundest Respect, and filial Affection, we sincerely congratulate your Sacred Majesty on your Accession to the Throne of these Realms.

We are gratefully sensible of the Clemency and Protection we have hitherto enjoyed; and, conscious of our unshaken Fidelity, are humbly confident of the Continuance thereof. And it is a Part of the Scripture Doctrine, embraced by us with the same hearty Propensity as the rest of the Dictates of that Book, that we shall always, from Duty and Inclination, love and revere the Father of our Country.

We cannot, therefore, but beg Permission to utter and avow these our Principles and Sentiments, which are rooted thus deep in our Hearts, with most ardent Wishes, that He, by whom Kings reign, may constantly accompany your Majesty with the choicest of His Blessings, and grant you long to sway your Royal Grandfather's Scepter in Prosperity and Glory.

And it shall be the constant Endeavour of each Member of our Community in all your Majesty's Dominions, to exhibit, on all Occasions, Proofs of our Attachment, Zeal and Obedience to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, while our fervent Prayers shall be continually offered up unto God our Saviour, to give Peace in your Days, to rejoice your Royal Heart with the blessed Effects of practical Religion, and loyal Unanimity among all your Subjects, and to continue the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms in your most illustrious House till Time shall be no more.

Nothing could efface these Impressions of Grief, but the Pleasure and Satisfaction we have in your Majesty's Accession to the Throne of these Realms: For when we consider your Majesty's known Virtues, and reflect, that you are descended from a Race of Heroes and Kings who have been the Protectors of Liberty, and Defenders of this your native Kingdom, we have the greatest Reason to expect a Continuance of those Blessings we have hitherto enjoyed.

Animated with these Hopes, we are persuaded that the bloody and expensive, though just and necessary War, hitherto conducted with so great Spirit and Glory, will, by your Majesty's Wisdom, be carried on with Vigour and Success, until it be terminated in a lasting and honourable Peace; and that it will be the chief Object of your Majesty's Reign to promote the Happiness and Prosperity of a free and grateful People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Newcastle under Lyme, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. Baptist Leveson Gower, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Newcastle under Lyme, in the County of Stafford, humbly beg Leave to offer our Condoleance, upon the Death of our late most Gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's Royal Grandfather, under whose mild and glorious Reign, we have been so long protected. We humbly beg Leave, at the same Time, to express our highest Joy, and Satisfaction, at your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, whose Princely Virtues, so early and eminently displayed, give us the strongest Assurances, that all the Blessings which can be derived from the best of Princes, will be enjoyed by these Kingdoms, under your Majesty's most auspicious Government. That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, shall be our constant Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twentieth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Grand Jury for the County of Middlesex, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Grand Jury for the County of Middlesex.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury of the County of Middlesex, beg Leave to join the General Voice of Congratulation upon your happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors; and, at the same Time, to condole with your Majesty on the much-lamented Death of your Illustrious Grandfather, whose mild and constitutional Reign will render his Memory ever dear to these Kingdoms.

That Loss (so sudden and so deeply felt) has been greatly alleviated by your Majesty's affectionate Declaration to the People of this your native Country, and by the Continuance of those Councils and Measures which have placed this Nation in so respectable a Light.

Your Majesty's declared and steady Regard to the Commercial Interest of this Kingdom in general, persuades us, that the Trade, Commerce and extensive Manufactures of this County in particular, will merit your Royal Attention.

Born and educated in a Land of Liberty, may your Majesty long enjoy the Sweets of reigning in the Hearts of a free People, happy in the Prospect of unnumbered Blessings to these Realms, from your many private, as well as publick Virtues: And permit us, Royal Sir, animated by your Example, and obedient to your Command, to assure you, that, as it is our peculiar Province, to sit fast on our constant Care, to prevent every Offence against the publick Peace, and, with the most of our Power, suppress all Vice and Immorality; so, in every Respect, to make this County an Example of Virtue, and worthy your Majesty's Regard.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Chester, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously

To the King's most excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Chester, in Common-Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council, of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, do, in Behalf of ourselves and fellow-Citizens, beg Leave, with all Humility, to approach your Sacred Person, with Hearts that deeply share in the general Calamity sustained by your Majesty's Imperial Dominions, in the Loss of their late departed Sovereign. A Loss so severe, must at all Times have been greatly felt and lamented, by the loyal Subjects of so excellent a Prince, who lived equally for His People's Happiness and His own Glory. But we should still be ungrateful to that good Providence, which has for so many Ages protected, and in a particular Manner superintended the Welfare of these Realms, if we were not now joyfully to accept and cherish that bright Sun, which dispels those mournful Clouds that so lately overshadowed even the extremest Part of these Kingdoms.

Permit us therefore, Great Sir, with the most zealous Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, to express our sincere Congratulations on your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms; nothing doubting, but that those Princely Qualities, so early conspicuous in your Majesty, will bless us with a Sovereign, Virtuous, Wise, and Brave, whose Royal Example shall be a Pattern for the Best to follow, and whose Wisdom and Valour shall enable him to triumph over all his Enemies.

Your Majesty's Accession, (which we do most sincerely congratulate) and your fervent Zeal for our Religion, and the Government as by Law established, give us a certain Prospect of our future Happiness, will alleviate our Grief, and engage us to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Duty and Allegiance to your Sacred Person and Government; and in order to promote the Peace and Quiet of your Majesty's Reign, we will make it our Study to discountenance all Prophaneness and Immorality, to maintain the Publick Peace, to preserve Union, and do whatever else may conduce to the Glory and Welfare of your Majesty and these your Kingdoms.

May your Reign continue prosperous, and your

Arms

May your Majesty be graciously pleased to accept the sincerest Assurances of our most inviolable Loyalty and Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government. Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Mayor, Recorder and Burgesses of the Ancient Borough of Lymington, with all Humility beg Leave to condole with your Majesty for the Loss of your Majesty's Royal and most illustrious Grandfather, our late King, which coming so sudden and unexpected upon us, pierced our Hearts with the deepest Impressions of Grief, which would have been almost insupportable, had it not been for these immediate and comfortable Reflections, That the Hand of Heaven cannot err; and that the same Great Power, who had taken from us the best of Kings, to reward him for his Royal Virtues, had not been unmindful of us; but before He put in Execution this Stroke of His Divine Will, He had endued your Majesty, who was to be his Successor, with every Virtue requisite to adorn a Royal Mind.

On this great and important Event, we do sincerely, with all the Ties of Gratitude, Honour, Duty and Obedience, from the Bottom of our Hearts, congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne, which you no sooner had mounted, but your Glory shined forth like a true Son of your Royal Ancestors, in an honest Declaration to your People, accompanied with the heavenly Attributes of Piety, Virtue, and Morality. We beg of God always to keep your Majesty under His Holy Protection, that your Reign may be long, happy, and glorious; and that the Blessings of Peace, Union and Contentment, may flourish and subsist, between your Majesty and your faithful Subjects, to the End, in the greatest Purity.

The full and uninterrupted Enjoyments we possessed of all our Rights, Liberties, and Properties, under his mild and most auspicious Reign, renders His Royal Memory most dear to us, and will be transmitted to Posterity with the highest Reverence.

A Loss, and at this critical Juncture too, the Nation would have most severely felt, had not Providence been careful of their future Happiness, in blessing us with a Successor, in whom every Virtue is united; and were it not for the full Assurance they have, that your Majesty, by imitating his Illustrious Example in promoting the Felicity and true Interest of His Subjects, will fix the Stability of your Throne in the Hearts of a generous and grateful People.

The Declaration your Majesty has most graciously been pleased to make of your Regard to the Constitution of this your native Kingdom, happily established on the Principles of Civil and Religious Liberty, and of your Attention to the Commercial Interest of this Nation, has bound us by Gratitude already to your Sacred Person, as well as by Duty and Inclination.

We humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall always be ready to exert ourselves to the utmost to support your Majesty in carrying on the just and necessary War you are now engaged in, to the obtaining a safe and honourable Peace.

That the same good Providence, which has hitherto blessed us with so large a Share of Success and Prosperity, may continue to exert itself in Favour of your Majesty's Endeavours; that you may long hold an undivided Empire in the Hearts of all; and that the Crown of these Realms may descend in your Illustrious Line to latest Posterity, are our constant and ardent Wishes.

WE your Majesty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Sudbury, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon, and with unfeigned Grief to deplore the Loſs of our late moſt excellent and glorious King, your Royal Grandfather, whoſe Maxims of Rule and Government were happily adapted to our Conſtitution in Church and State; whoſe Sway was mild and gentle; whoſe private Virtues were a Leſſon to Mankind; and whoſe Power, as a Monarch, was formidable to his Enemies. What Hopes they might entertain upon the ſudden Stroke for which we Mourn, they beſt can tell; but our Expectations are happily fixed upon a Certainty, by your Majesty's peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, in the Flower of your Age, to the inexpressible Joy of all your Subjects; and by your Royal Declaration on aſſuming the Imperial Sceptre.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of Beverley, in the County of York, in Common Council aſſembled.

Our Grief, on this melancholy Event, could not but give Way to the Joy with which our Hearts were filled, on beholding the Sceptre of theſe Kingdoms transferred into the Hands of a Prince, whoſe Mind has ſo early imbibed every Sentiment of Virtue, and every Principle of Honour; and whoſe Illuſtrious Qualities have juſtly made him the Pride and Ornament of his Age and Country.

It is an unſpeakable Satisfaction to us, and, we truſt, a happy Omen of the future Succeſs of your Majesty's Reign, that the Divine Providence has placed your Majesty on the Royal Throne, at a Time when its Glory is at ſo great a Height; when every odious Diſtinction, which divides and weakens a free People, no longer ſubſiſts amongſt us; when the Civil and Military are no longer ſeparate Characters, but co-operate, and give Force to each other in Support of the Common Cauſe; when every Rank, every Denomination, of your Majesty's Subjects are united by the ſtrongeſt of all Ties, their common Intereſt, and the moſt noble of all Affections, the Love of their Country. Happy for us, that ſuch Bleſſings are now rendered more ſecure; that our Religious and Civil Rights have your Majesty for their Protector; and that the Glory, with which theſe Kingdoms are fur-rounded, will receive from ſuch a Sovereign a new and additional Luſtre.

Permit us, therefore, moſt gracious Sire, who are actuated by the warmeſt Sentiments of Duty, Zeal; and Affection for your Majesty's Perſon and Government, to offer our ſincere Aſſurances of Loyalty and Obedience, and of our unalterable Reſolution to promote one common End, the Good of our Country, and the Honour of your Majesty's Government.

May your Majesty's Reign be glorious and laſting, and happily diſtinguiſhed by every Mark of the Divine Favour.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AS none have been more ſenſibly affected at your Majesty's and the Nation's late great Loſs than ourſelves, we beg to offer our Condoleance on that unexpected and melancholy Event, ſo critical and ſo important to the Proteſtant Religion, and to the Liberties of Europe, that nothing could have ſet Bounds to our Affliction, but your Majesty's Acceſſion to the Throne; and on this happy Occaſion your Majesty will be pleaſed to accept of our moſt ſincere Congratulations.

It has hitherto been our conſtant Care to ſupport, in this Borough, the Intereſts of ſuch only, who have been diſtinguiſhed for their Attachment to your Majesty's moſt Illuſtrious Houſe: But Thanks be to God,

God, and to the Wisdom and Goodness of the late Reign, and to the high Expectation universally conceived of the present, this Caution seems to be no more necessary, the long-wished for Blessing, Unanimity, is at Length restored to a late divided Nation, and an-unfeigned Affection for their King and Constitution is become their Characteristic.

We have only to add, That as it is our ardent Wish, so it shall be our constant Prayer to the Almighty, that your Majesty's Reign may be long, happy, and prosperous, over an affectionate, dutiful, and a grateful People.
