St. James's, December 16.

THE following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Principal Inhabitants of East Retford, has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, High Steward of the Town of East Retford: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Principal Inhabitants of East Retford, most humbly approach your Throne under the deepest Concern for the Loss of our late most Gracious King, your Royal Grandfather, whose continued Attention to the true Interest of his People, must ever be held in grateful Remembrance in these Kingdoms.

The Loss of such a King, the Father of his People, and the Bulwark of the Protestant Interest in Europe, can only be compensated by your Majesty's Succession to the Throne of your Ancestors, to which you are called by the united Voice of a grateful People, who promise themselves every Blessing which flows from Piety and Virtue, exemplified by your Royal Conduct, and enforced by your Authority.

We see, with the utmost Reverence and Gratitude, your Majesty's early Attention to the Cares of Government, and the Preference which your Majesty gives to the Interest of your People, to all other Considerations.

We trust in the Divine Providence, that your Labours for the Good of your Kingdoms, and the Security of the Protestant Interest at home and abroad, will be attended with Success; and that this destructive, though necessary War, will be ended by a safe, lasting and honourable Peace.

We humbly employ the Almighty, that your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign, attended with the Blessings of Providence, and the Affections of your Subjects; and that the Glory of reigning over a free and grateful People may be transmitted to your Majesty's Posterity to the latest Ages.

In Witness whereof, we the said Bailiffs and Burgeses have hereunto unanimously affixed our Common Seal, in the Moothall of the said Town, the Tenth Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and sixty.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Inverurie, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, has by Mr. Burnett been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Inverurie.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Magistrates and Town-Council of Inverurie, beg Leave to mingle our filial Sorrows with those of our Sovereign, in condoling the Death of a King so truly the Father of His People, that he will ever be held in most precious Remembrance.

So great a Loss, at such a Time, was alone supported, in the Hopes that His Royal Successor would inherit his Virtues. Your Majesty has made Haste to cherish those Hopes, in Assurances that speak so much the King of the British Constitution, that we do, in the Fullness of Hearts, gratefully exulting, congratulate an Accession that so fairly promises a Patriot Prince.

May your Majesty, after being enabled to crown the Successes of War, with a Peace that will set Bounds to the Wantonness of Power, and secure the Rights of your People, long reign the Blessing of your native Country, and leave your Royal Posterity an illustrious Example, how truly great a British Monarch may be when the Virtues of the Prince give Dignity and Splendor to the Diadem.

Signed the 2d of December, 1760, by Appointment,
George Burnett, Provost.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cardigan, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Willmot Vaughan, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cardigan, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and condole with you that Loss which this Nation has sustained by the Death of our late most gracious Sovereign, whose Princely Virtues, displayed through a long and illustrious Reign, must render his Memory ever dear to a grateful Country.

Permit us, at the same Time, to congratulate your Majesty upon your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, and to express our unfeigned Joy at the pleasing Prospect which is opened to us, of having, under your mild and auspicious Government, all those Blessings continued to us which a free People can derive from the best of Princes. The Attachment which you have declared in so gracious a Manner to your native Country, fills our Breasts with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude, and must induce us to exert ourselves, to the utmost of our Abilities, in every Act of Duty, Loyalty and Affection.

We ardently wish, that your Majesty's Reign may be eminently distinguished by a Series of great and fortunate Events; and that you may long live the Protector of our Liberties, the Patron of our Commerce, and the Ruler of a powerful and united People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Town of Bedford, has been presented to His Majesty by Francis Herne, and Robert Henley Ongley, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Borough of Bedford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of your ancient and loyal Town of Bedford, beg Leave to condole with you
