From Tuesday March 3, to Saturday March 7, 1761.

St. James's, March 7.

THE following Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County Palatine of Lancaster, has been presented to His Majesty by William Farington, Esq; the High Sheriff, accompanied by the Earl of Kinnoull, Chancellor of the County Palatine, Lord Willoughby of Parham, George Warren, Francis Reynolds, Nicholas Fazakerly, Edmond Starkie, Richard Wilbraham Boottle, Henry Hoghton, Thomas Braddyll, Robert Roper, and William Lucas, Esqrs, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting. They had all the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand:

And His Majesty, was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on William Farington, Esq; of Shaw Hall, High Sheriff of the said County.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of your County Palatine of Lancaster, beg Leave to lament with your Majesty the Death of your Royal Grandfather, our late Sovereign, whose mild and gracious Government, whose Attention to the Civil and Religious Rights, Liberties, and Privileges of His Subjects, are too deeply imprinted in our Minds ever to be forgotten. The Concern we feel on this melancholy Occasion, nothing could alleviate, but a firm Belief, that these Rights, Liberties, and Privileges, which we value above our Lives, will be preserved to us entire by your Majesty. In full Confidence of which, we congratulate your Majesty on your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms. And we do assure your Majesty, that nothing shall be wanting, on our Part, to maintain and support you on that Throne, where it has pleased Heaven to place you; and where, we hope, you will long reign a glorious and beloved Prince, over a free, a happy, and a grateful People.

The following Address of the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Mayo, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Mayo, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Mayo, in your Kingdom of Ireland, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Hearts impressed with the most ardent Loyalty to your Sacred Majesty, and with our most humble and sincere Congratulation, upon your Accession to the Throne of these Realms; an Event, which alone could afford us Consolation for the inexpressible Loss we have sustained by the Decease of our late King, your Majesty's Grandfather, of glorious and happy Memory, the Common Father of all His People, whose Reign for Justice, Mercy, and Magnanimity, stands unrivalled in the Annals of these Kingdoms.

That your Majesty's Reign may be much longer over us, and, if possible, still more auspicious and glorious, is our most Cordial Wish; and that an Heir may never be wanting, in your Majesty's August House, to give equal Lustre to the Diadem of these Kingdoms, until Time shall be no more.
