

War Office, May 16, 1761.

IT is His Majesty's Pleasure, That all Officers belonging to Regiments in Germany, who are not absent upon Regimental Business, should join their respective Corps without Delay.

By His Majesty's Command,
C. Townshend.

Whitehall, May 5, 1761.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That the Magistrate and Council of the Islands of Scilly have transmitted to the Earl of Godolphin, Governor of the said Islands, several Letters and Depositions relative to the Murder of one John Spence, by some of the Crew of His Majesty's Sloop Speedwell: And whereas a Jury, that were summoned on that Account, have found, That the said John Spence was murdered by Persons unknown; but, the Sloop sailing away with all her People, prevented the said Magistrate and Council of Scilly from proceeding any further in the Discovery of them; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein; so that he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Criminals.
