AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 16th Day of July, 1761,

P R E S E N T,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

This Day his Grace Thomas Holles Duke of Newcastle took the Oaths appointed to be taken instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, as Lord Lieutenant of the Counties and Towns following, viz.

County of Middlesex, and City and Liberty of Westminster.

County of Nottingham, and Town of Nottingham and County of the same. And,

County of Suffex.

St. James's, July 15.

This Day the following Address of the Lieutenant Governor, and the Upper House of Assembly, in the Province of Maryland, was presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Baltimore, Lord Proprietary of the said Province, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, and the Upper House of Assembly, in the Province of Maryland.

DEEPLY affected with the severe Loss we, in common with our Fellow-Subjects, have sustained by the Death of our late most Excellent King, of happy Memory, whose paternal Care the Inhabitants of these Colonies have, in the amplest Manner, experienced in the Course of His long, mild, just, and glorious Reign; favourably permit us, most Gracious Sovereign, to condole with your Majesty that melancholy Event: But we should not approve ourselves in any Respect worthy of the indulgent Protection of Providence, did we not derive and most thankfully acknowledge the strongest Consolation, from a Contemplation on the Eminent and Royal Virtues, which constitute and embellish the Character of a good King; and give the best Assurance of a Continuance, under your Majesty's Reign, of the invaluable Blessings we have so long enjoyed during that of your Illustrious Grandfather. With this Assurance, we join in the general Joy which hath been diffused through all the extensive Dominions of Great Britain; and, with the greatest Humility and purest Sincerity of Heart, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors.

May your Majesty be rendered happy by the Prosperity of a Free People, flourishing under the benign Influence of your auspicious Government; by a grateful and adequate Retribution in their zealous Affection, and firm Attachment to your Sacred Person, and by every Solace of human Nature; and we most fervently pray, that your Majesty's Reign may be distinguished as well by its Length as its Felicity.

[Price Three pence.]

Admiralty Office, July 15.

Captain Lobb, of His Majesty's Sloop the Swan, gives an Account, that on the 11th Instant, being on the Coast of Holland, he took La Fluer Privateer of Dunkirk, of two Guns and Twenty-nine Men, commanded by Simond L'Hermitte, which had been out two Days, and had not taken any Thing; and that finding the Vessel leaky, and it blowing fresh, he was obliged to sink her, after taking her Men out.

Derby, July 13, 1761.

His Majesty's Deputy Lieutenants for this County, have appointed a Meeting to be holden at the George Inn in Derby, on Friday the 31st Day of this Instant July, when all Persons that are willing and qualified to serve as Officers in the Militia for the said County, are desired to attend, and deliver in, or cause to be delivered in, their Names, to such Person or Persons as shall be authorised to receive the same, specifying the Rank in which they are willing to serve.

John Bateman, Clerk to the Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

General Post Office, July 1, 1761.

Notice is hereby given, that the Post will go every Night (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge Wells, and from Tunbridge Wells to London, to begin on Monday next the 6th Instant, and continue during the Summer Season, as usual.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
Henry Potts, Secretary.

Navy Office, July 6, 1761.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Monday the 27th Instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning, Commissioner Rogers will expose to Sale at his Office in His Majesty's Yard at Plymouth, Several Parcels of old Stores, laid apart in Lots in the said Yard, consisting of Paper Stuff in old Rigging, Boltrope, old Junk, Cables, Old Hammocks, Boats Coverings, Awning, Ground Toes, Flyings, White Ocham, &c. where such Persons as are willing to be Purchasers, may have the Liberty of viewing them at any Time in the common Working Hours of the Yard, till the Day of Sale: And as a Deposit of 25 l. per Cent. or in Proportion thereto, is to be made by the Persons who shall purchase the said Stores, all Persons, that shall attend the said Sale, are to take Notice thereof, and come prepared for that Purpose.
