The Resistance the Enemy made, has put it in our Power to bring them to such Terms as we please; and they are flocking from all Parts of the Island, to take the Oath of Allegiance to His Majesty King George.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Chester, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Chester, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of your ancient and loyal City of Chester, amidst the universal Joy of your Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with our warmest Congratulations, on the late glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms, in the Conquest of the important Island of Belleisle. A Conquest, Sir, in all its Circumstances, so brilliant, seems to have been reserved to mark the Outset of a Reign of Glory, and to tell your vaunting Adversary, with whom he has to contend. We are possess'd, Sir, with an entire Confidence in your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness towards your People; and we flatter ourselves, that the further Progress of your Arms, will, in due Time, teach Reason to those who have hitherto disregarded the Equity and Moderation of the British Crown.

Your Majesty's most gracious Declaration, of your Resolution of demanding in Marriage the Princess Charlotte of Mecklenburg Strelitz, a Princess distinguished by every eminent Virtue, and amiable Endowment, whose illustrious Line has constantly shewn the firmest Zeal for the Protestant Religion, and a particular Attachment to your Royal Family, affects us with the highest Degree of Satisfaction. Permit us, Sir, to express our most grateful Acknowledgments to your Majesty, for this Instance of your paternal Goodness, and attentive Regard to the Welfare and Happiness of your People. Give us leave, to add our most ardent Wishes, that these Kingdoms may never want a Succession of Princes of your illustrious Line, to bestow those Blessings upon them, in future Ages, which we, at present, have the Happiness to enjoy, under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.
