HER most Serene Highness the Princess Charlotte of Mecklenburg, having embarked on Board His Majesty's Yacht at Stade, the 22d past, and fallen down the Elbe to Cuxhaven, sailed from thence the 28th, and arrived in the Port of Harwich, on Sunday Evening last, the 6th Instant. Hague, Sept. 4. We are at present without any Thing new from the Army under Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick. By the Advices from the Lower Rhine, the Cavalry of the French King's Household, which was quietly cantoned between the Rhine and Maese, and in the Dutchy of Cleves, received a sudden Order to quit their Cantonments and to march with all possible Dispatch to the Plain of Burick, behind Wezel, where they are encamped. This sudden Order is attributed to the Appearance of a Body of the Allied Army, said to be commanded by the Hereditary Prince, upon the Lippe; and to a Check a Body of the Prince of Soubize's Army had received at Dorsten, where the French were establishing a Magazine of Provision and Ammunition, for their Service during the Siege of Munster. The same Advices add, that the Prince of Soubize himself was expected with the Remains of his Army near the Rhine.

Letters from Breslaw of the 22d give an Account, that on the 19th and 20th the Russian Army marched from Fenschel near Nicolstadt towards Leignitz. The Austrians, who were at Freyburg and Sheigan, moved at the same Time to Jauer; by which Motions the Junction of the Russian and Austrian Armies was secured; and his Prussian Majesty thought proper immediately to change his Position, having decamped from Nicolstadt, and marched to Buntzelwitz, in his Way to Schweidnitz.
