

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 26, to Sunday September 29, 1761.

St. James's, September 29.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Edward Hawke, Knight of the Bath, and Sir Matthew Fetherstonhaugh, Bart. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Portsmouth in the County of Southampton.

PERMIT, most gracious Sovereign, your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of this Borough, to tender their most sincere and zealous Congratulations to your Majesty, on your happy Union with the August Princess Charlotte of Mecklenburg Strclitz; A Princess descended from an House, ever zealous for the Protestant Interest.

This Instance of your Majesty's paternal Affection to your dutiful Subjects, opens to their View a most pleasing and noble Prospect of the Continuance of those many Blessings we have long enjoyed under your Majesty's Royal Ancestors, and now enjoy under your auspicious Reign.

May your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, long live, and be crowned with every connubial Blessing, and Felicity; May your Majesty always reign in the Hearts of your free and happy People; And may your Royal Descendants reign over, and be a Blessing to, these happy Realms to the latest Posterity.

Dated at the Guildhall of the said Borough the 22d Day of September, 1761.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants, of the City of Rochester, has been presented to Her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales: Which Address Her Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants, of the City of Rochester, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Highness,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants, of the City of Rochester, humbly beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations to your Royal Highness, on the Auspicious Nuptials of our most gracious Sovereign.

Amidst the universal Joy, which diffuses itself over these Kingdoms on this happy Occasion it would be highly ungrateful in us, not to remember your Royal Highness, whose maternal Care sowed those early Seeds of Virtue in His Majesty's Breast, which have since yielded so plentiful an Harvest.

His Majesty has chosen for His Consort a Princess worthy of his Throne: What Degree of Happiness therefore may not His Subjects reasonably expect from such an Union?

May your Royal Highness long live to see their Majesties completely united in each other, and in a numerous Offspring; and may there never be wanting one of their Descendants to wear the crown of their Realm, who may, with His Majesty's Throne, inherit His Royal Virtues.

Given under our Common Seal, this twenty first Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand seven Hundred and sixty one.

Copenhagen, September 19. The young Princes of Hesse Castell set out last Tuesday for Colding in Jutland, in order to meet the Princess their Mother, who comes from Zell to see them. This Interview is to continue eight or ten Days; after which, her Royal Highness and the Princes propose to separate again, and to return to their respective Abodes.

Magdebourg, Sept. 19. The Russian Fleet have again begun to bombard Colberg; and General Romanzow cannonaded the Duke of Wurtemberg in his Camp from the 4th to the 9th, but with very little Effect.

Letters from Glogau confirm the Account of the Baggage of the Russian Army having repassed the Oder; but add, that Marshal Butterlin continued with his Forces about Parchwitz in Silesia.

Frankfort, Sept. 20. The Difficulty and Expence that attends transporting Forage from Alsace, have determined the French Court to draw no more from thence; but to oblige several of the Electors, Princes and States of the Empire to furnish it at Twenty Sols French Money per Ration, though it costs near double that Price.

The Electorate of Mentz has been taxed at One Million Five Hundred Thousand Rations; the Palatinate at Two Millions; the Electorate of Triers at One Million Four Hundred Thousand; the Landgrave of Hesse Darmstadt at Six Hundred Thousand; some other States, Counts, &c. at One Million; by which Means it is hoped that Marshal Broglio's Army, where Forage was very scarce, will be furnished with Six Millions Five Hundred Thousand Rations.

Hambourg, Sept. 22. We have Advice from Pomerania, that Lieutenant General Werner having been informed, that a Detachment of recovered Men, with three Squadrons of Hussars, were on their March from Stettin to reinforce the Prince of Wurtemberg before Colberg, he left his Intrenchments, with the greatest Part of his Cavalry, in order to facilitate their Junction; on which Occasion there had been a smart Engagement between him, and a Body of Russians near Treptow Wood, when the Regiment of Wurtemberg had been put into Disorder; that the Affair was not however of so great Consequence as to prevent the further Progress of the Prussians, though General Werner himself, in endeavouring to rally the said Regiment, had been made Prisoner. On the other Side, Lieutenant Colonel Witgenstein, with about 100 Men, had fallen into the Hands of the Prussians.

Hague, Sept. 25. The last Letters from the Allied Army mention, that the Hereditary Prince was arrived at Warbourg, with the greatest Part of his Corps; upon which Prince Ferdinand had ordered the whole Army to march, the 17th at Midnight, in order to cross the Dymel, and operate a Diversion