

strengthen) and are, there therefore the more immediate Objects of your Royal Attention, are, as we ought to be, most sensibly affected with every Thing that can afford your Majesty the publick and private Satisfaction, which you so much deserve. It is your Majesty's Happiness, and ours, that your most Excellent Consort seems to be born with a Capacity to share, and with a Sweetness of Temper to sooth the Cares of Government. This Disposition to Affability and Benevolence will render Her the Delight and Admiration of our own, and the Envy of Foreign Nations. At the same Time, your Majesty possesses the Hearts of your Subjects; and they are excited to a cheerful Discharge of their several Duties, whilst they behold your Majesty's unwearied Application to the momentous Concerns of Government. But whilst we are reflecting upon the Blessings we already enjoy, allow us to carry our Thoughts on to the pleasing Prospect of future Felicities. Upon this View we indulge the most reasonable Hopes, and employ our most sincere and ardent Prayers and Wishes, that your Majesty, and your Illustrious Consort, may, after a long and glorious Reign, leave the Inheritance of your Fame and Dominions to a numerous and long extended Line of Descendants that may govern these Kingdoms to the End of Time. In Witness whereof, we have hereto set out Hands the Sixth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-one.

The following Address of the Bayliff and Burgeses of the Borough of Cricklade in the County of Wilts, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Gore and Arnold Nesbitt, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bayliff and Burgeses of the Borough of Cricklade in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bayliff and Burgeses of the Borough of Cricklade, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon that auspicious Subject of universal Joy, which your Majesty's happy Marriage with so Illustrious and Amiable a Consort, hath diffused itself through all Ranks of a dutiful and grateful People.

We should be insensible to our own Happiness, if our Hearts did not exult with Joy on this interesting Occasion; and greatly wanting in Duty to the best of Sovereigns, if we did not, in great Humility, express our warmest Wishes, that it may give as great Domestick Bliss to your Majesty and your Royal Consort, as it does Publick Happiness to your Kingdoms.

May it please the Almighty to fulfil our Expectations, by blessing your Majesty's Nuptials with a numerous Progeny, glorious and good as their Royal Parents; and may there never be wanting one of your Majesty's immediate Descendants, to sway the Sceptre of these Realms, and dispense to our latest Posterity, the invaluable Blessings we ourselves enjoy under your Majesty's most Glorious and Auspicious Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of Plymouth, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Barrington, and Sir George Pocock, Knight of the Bath, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting:

Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of your Borough of Plymouth.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council, actuated by every Motive of loyal and grateful Duty, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our most humble and sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Marriage to so Illustrious a Protestant Princess, an Event which has gratified the most ardent Wishes of all your Subjects, and extends the happy Prospect of the publick Welfare to after Ages. May the Almighty, by whom Kings reign, grant Length of Days, and never ceasing Happiness to your Majesty and your Royal Consort, now our most gracious Queen; and may your Kingdoms be ever happy in having Successors to the Throne of your Royal Progeny, and inherit your distinguished Virtues: These are Part of the Wishes and Desires of your most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, in the County of Somerset, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Egmont, and Edward Southwell, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, in the County of Somerset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

MAY it please your Majesty, to accept the sincere and cordial Congratulations of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of Bridgwater, on the happy Completion of your Royal Nuptials, with a Princess of such amiable and distinguished Virtues and Accomplishments, as cannot fail to secure to your Majesty every domestick Happiness.

Permit us to join, with the general Voice of your joyful People, in imploring the Divine Providence, to preserve your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, in an uninterrupted Course of Felicity; that your Majesty's Reign may be long and glorious, over a free and loyal People; and that there may not be wanting a Succession of Princes, descended from your Majesty, to inherit the Crown of your Imperial Kingdoms to the latest Posterity.

The following Address of the principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Minehead in the County of Somerset, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Thomond and Henry Shiffner, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Minehead in the County of Somerset.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and dutiful Subjects, the principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Minehead, humbly beg Leave to approach
