

approach your Sacred Person, to offer the Tribute of our unfeigned Joy on your Majesty's Nuptials. May Heaven shower down its choicest Blessings upon your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, that this illustrious Marriage may produce a Race of Princes possessed of the eminent Virtues of their Royal Progenitors; and transmit, in the Course of their Succession, the Blessings of your Auspicious Reign to latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Appleby, has been presented to Her Majesty by Lieutenant General Honeywood and Major General Stanwix, their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Appleby.

May it please your Majesty,

SINCE it hath pleased the Divine Providence to place your Majesty the highest of your Sex in this Kingdom, your Welfare is become a Matter of the greatest Concernment to all its Inhabitants: And we the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Appleby, beg Leave to wish you all possible Felicity therein.

Our Hopes that your Majesty will be a worthy Instrument of conveying those many Blessings, which we find under His Majesty's mild and auspicious Rule, to our Posterity, afford us the fullest Satisfaction; and we fervently pray, that the same Providence, which hath conducted you to this exalted Station, may preserve your Majesty long in it, blessed with the Affection of our Royal Sovereign, happy in the Duty of a large and virtuous Offspring, and secure in the Esteem of all His Majesty's Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal of the Borough aforesaid, in Court assembled, this 29th Day of September 1761.

Leicester House, October 17.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Gloucester, has been presented to her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales: Which Address her Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Gloucester.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on the Nuptials of our most gracious Sovereign; and heartily pray that you may long, very long enjoy the peculiar Felicity of having given to these Kingdoms a Blessing beyond their Hopes.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, has been presented to her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales: Which Address her Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

Madam,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the City, of Bristol in Common Council assembled, with Hearts full of Joy, congratulate your Royal Highness upon the Nuptials of your illustrious Son, our most gracious Sovereign, with a Princess whose Virtues and amiable Endowments justly marked Her out to His Majesty's Choice for the happy Partner of His Bed and Throne. May their Union be crowned with Pledges of conjugal Love, and national Felicity, such as have made your Royal Highness a Blessing to these Nations. That your Royal Highness may long live to enjoy the Fruits of your Parental Cares, and the Happiness derived from them, is the ardent Prayer of your Royal Highness's faithful and devoted Servants.

By Order of Common Council,
A. Isaac Elton, Town Clerk.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath, has been presented to her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales: Which Address her Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

UPON this joyful Occasion, We the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, should be wanting in our Duty to your Royal Highness, if we omitted this Opportunity of testifying to your Royal Highness the Satisfaction we feel upon His Majesty's auspicious Marriage.

As all the Blessings we enjoy, or shall enjoy, under His Majesty's gentle Government, are derived as well from that exemplary Education, which He received from your Royal Highness; as to His own excellent Disposition, your Royal Highness has a Right to share with Him the Acknowledgements and Applauses of His People, upon every Event that has, or shall hereafter signalize His happy Reign. In that Respect, we beg Leave to approach your Royal Highness, and pronounce you the happiest of Mothers, who, in the Vigour of your Age, have lived already to see every Thing accomplished in your Son, that the fondest Parent could wish for their Child, or the most affectionate Subjects for their Sovereign.

You have seen Him exalted to the Throne in the Bloom of His Years; the Darling of His People; and the Terror of His Enemies; and in this glorious Situation, when nothing was wanting to consummate His, or our Happiness, but a worthy Partner of His Throne. Your Royal Highness sees now that Circumstance added to the rest; and the Throne now completely filled with a Lady who is the Admiration of Her new Subjects. A Lady destined by Providence, and prepared by Her own Merit, to be exalted to this Height, where the Lustre of a Crown will receive Addition from Her Virtues and rare Accomplishments.

May this great Event insure to this Nation a perpetual Succession of Monarchs; and permit us to assure your Royal Highness, we shall always remember, with Gratitude, that Person, from whose Instruction and Example we have received our King; and from whom consequently all the Blessings we now enjoy are principally derived.

Given under our Common Seal, the fifth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and sixty one.
