

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

Gentlemen,

I Return you my most sincere Thanks for your kind and affectionate Address. The Professions you have been pleased to make, I consider rather as directed to my Situation than my Person; and I look upon this, as one of the many Ways by which you are desirous to convey your Duty to His Majesty. It is so far only as I have the Honour of representing my Royal Master, that I can be in any Manner intitled to receive them; but, in that Light, I must declare myself highly satisfied with so pleasing a Testimony of your Loyalty and Gratitude. What I have said, on the Part of the King, you may rest upon with the most perfect Reliance: What I have said, upon my own, you will interpret by my Conduct.

Magdebourg, Oct. 24. The King of Prussia continued, when we last heard from Silesia, in his Camp of Strehlen, and General Laudohn in that of Freybourg. On the 19th of this Month, General Botta was sent with a Thousand Waggon's laden with Infantry, to make an Attempt on the Fortress of Kosel, which however did not succeed, as he found General Latorff, Commandant of that Place, alert, and upon his Guard.

Prince Henry still remains in the Camp at Schlettau, and the Motions of Marshal Daun, and General Lascy, have produced no Effect. The Swedes seem to have finished their Campaign, having passed the the Peyne at Anclam, and the Oder at Commin; both which Places they have evacuated.

The Gros of the Russian Fleet is retired from before Colberg, but some few Vessels still block up that Place; and General Romanzow, though he has embarked his heavy Artillery, remains in his entrenched Camp, opposite to General Platow.

Liege, Oct. 26. This Day a Battalion of French Guards arrived here, returning to France; they have suffered very much by Sickness and Want of Provisions since they took the Field.

Tongres, Oct. 28. The four Companies of the Gardes du Corps, which are the last of the King's Household, are passed by here in their Way to Brussels; they are in general very ill mounted, having lost a great Number of Horses in the Field; and the Rest are ruined by Fatigues, and Want of Forage, &c.

Hague, Oct. 30. Marshal Broglio continued still on the 26th Instant, in the same Position, encamped and cantoned between the Leine and Weser. He had a Corps upon the Fulda, and another upon the Dymel. They have demolished the Castle of Schartzfeldt; and given Orders for levelling the Walls of Duderstadt; and are now employed in collecting a great Quantity of Forage in the Parts where they are at present.

Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters were still at Ohr on the 26th: His Troops are in Part encamped; and in Part cantoned between the Emmer, the Hamel, and the Innerte, with a Detachment upon the Lippe. It is probable that this latter occasioned the Prince of Soubize's suspending for a little the Dislocation of his Army, which, it is still assured, is entering into Winter Quarters. The Prince of Soubize is
