To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Drumfries.

May it please your Majesty,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen, of the County of Drumfries, assembled at Drumfries, this Eighteenth Day of November, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and sixty one, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your happy Nuptials, an Event so fortunate to these Realms.

With the utmost Joy we behold our Sovereign made dear to us by the Exercise of every Virtue which adds Dignity to the Monarch, or bestows Happiness on the Subject, united to a Princess, whose amiable Endowments and distinguished Merit, while they bless His Majesty with domestick Felicity, must render Her the Friend and Darling of the People.

May the Almighty Providence long preserve your Majesty to enjoy the Blessings of connubial Felicity; may you be happy in a numerous Progeny; and may the Sceptre of these Realms be swayed by them and their Descendants to latest Posterity.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment,

The following Address of the French Protestant Ministers has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Au Roi.

AGréez, Sire, que nous vous donnions une Marque de notre Hommage et de notre Zèle dans une Occasion qui fait le Sujet de la Joye universelle; et qui est d'ailleurs si intimement liée avec le Bonheur de votre Vie. Nous nous felicitons du Choix que votre Majesté a fait d'une Princesse auguste par Sa Naissance et la Gloire de Ses Ayeux. Les Princes de Sa Maison sont compris entre les Chefs de l'Union Protestante, et se montrèrent si Zélés pour la bonne Cause qu'ils en furent les Victimes; ils se virent depouilles de leur Duché, jusqu'à ce que le Grand Gustave devenu par ses Armes victorieuses le Libérateur de l'Allemagne, rétablit les Ducs de Mecklembourg issus du même Sang que lui, dans leurs Etats.

Mais, Sire, si la Princesse pouvoit meriter votre Choix par les Titres qui décorent Sa Maison, Elle n'en étoit pas moins digne par Son Caractere. Respectable par Ses éminentes Qualités, par ces Graces vives qui donnent du Relief à la Vertu même, par la Culture d'un excellent Naturel, et sur tout par une Pieté éclairée. Tous vos fideles Sujets (et nous osons nous mettre de ce Nombre) ne peuvent que prendre un Interêt très particulier à cette Union, qui est elle-même un Lien plus fort de la Succession Protestante, devient une Source nouvelle de la Felicité publique; puisqu'elle ne nous promet rien moins que de voir naître de votre Personne Sacrée, une Famille de Heros Defenseurs de la Foi, d'illustres Rejettons qui formés sur votre Exemple, seront dans leurs Temps l'Apui du Trône et la Gloire de ces Royaumes.

Néanmoins en considérant ces Avantages inestimables, mais que nous ne pouvons envisager que dans un Avenir même éloigné; il nous arrive par un Sentiment naturel, de porter notre Attention sur le présent; et sur le Bonheur actuel dont nous jouissons. Il nous est doux de penser que nous ne comptons que la premiere Année du Regne de votre Majesté.

Daigne le Dieu de vos Peres qui vous a favorisé dans les Temps de votre Vie, les plus importants, la Naissance, le Mariage, et dès les Commencemens de votre Regne par des Succès éclatans; ce Dieu que vous servez par les meilleures Intentions de votre Coeur, vous aider lui-même à remplir dans une longue Suite d'Années tous Ses glorieux Desseins! Puissent les Voeux sinceres et ardens, que nous ne cessons d'adresser au Seigneur pour la Conservation de vos Jours, être efficaces, et attirer sur nous cette Bénédiction, Benediction, de posséder long tems un Roi dont le vrai Caractere est la Pieté envers Dieu sans Fard et sans Superstition, l'Amour de l'Humanité, de la Justice, et de la Paix.

L'Attention toute paternelle de votre Majesté, à faire sentir à nos François Refugiés, les Effets de Sa Beneficence exige de nous le Tribut de la plus juste Reconnoissance.

The following Address of the French Protestant Ministers has been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

A la Reine.

Madame,

LES Voeux des Protestans François Refugiés sont remplis, et votre Majesté met le comble à leur Joye, en daignant leur permettre de la faire éclater en sa Présence.

Les Vertus, Madame, qui vous appellèrent au Trône qu'elles honorent, l'heureux Don de plaire qui les accompagne, et les fait chérir; le Sang illustre qui en relève l'Éclat, et la Religion sainte qui les couronne, donnent à la Personne Sacrée du Roi, une Aide aimable et respectable qui lui ressemble. Vous regnez, Madame, dans tous les Coeurs, comme votre Auguste Epoux; et regnant dans le Sien, vous occupez la plus glorieuse Place de l'Univers.

Puissiez vous, Madame, faire long tems le Bonheur de Sa Majesté, et les Délices de Ses Peuples! Et puisse notre Refuge trouver un nouvel Appui dans votre Personne Sacrée, et dans d'illustres Rejettons de George et de Charlotte!

Hamburg, Dec. 8. Letters received To-day from Berlin mention, that General Lafci, who lately attempted to oblige Prince Henry to quit his present Position in Saxony, by making an Appearance at some few German Miles Distance of Berlin, is returned back, and had encamped himself at Dalwitz near Dresden. The same Advices add, that the Prince of Wurtemberg is at present near Shifelbein on the other Side of the River Rega; and that the Generals Platen and Schenkendorff were on their March to join his Highness, in order to attack and force General Romanzow to raise the Siege of Colberg; and that the Russians began to be in great Want both of Provisions and Forage.
