The following Address of the Governour, Council and Assembly of the Province of Georgia, having been transmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Governour, Council and Assembly of your Majesty's Province of Georgia.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governour, Council and Assembly of Georgia, with great Humility beg Leave to join in the universal Joy, afforded to all your Majesty's Subjects, by the auspicious Event of your Royal Nuptials; and with Gratitude and Veneration to offer our sincerest Congratulations on that most happy Occasion.

Penetrated with the deepest Sense of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty, our most sanguine Hopes and earnest Prayers are, that this illustrious Union with a Princess possessed of every Accomplishment, and displaying the highest and most distinguished Virtues, may be productive of true and permanent domestic Happiness to your Majesty and your Royal Consort; and that the same All-ruling Power, which has so conspicuously blessed and crowned your Majesty's Arms with Success, may continue to your Majesty a lasting and uninterrupted Series of Felicity. And that your Majesty may attain the highest Summit of Earthly Bliss; may a numerous Progeny, inheriting the great and innate Goodness of their Royal Parents, fill the British Throne; and perpetuate to the latest Ages the many inestimable Blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's Patriotic Government.

The following Address of the Governour, Council and Assembly of the Province of Georgia, having been transmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to Her Majesty: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governour, Council and Assembly of His Majesty's Province of Georgia.

MAY it please your Majesty to permit us the Governour, Council and Assembly of Georgia, with the utmost Joy and Gratitude, to offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Nuptials with our most gracious Sovereign, a Monarch of unparalleled Merit.

The Illustrious House from which your Majesty is descended, long and eminently distinguished for real Piety, and an unalterable Attachment to the Protestant Religion, and your truly exalted Virtues and Accomplishments, give the most pleasing Prospect; and when real Affection is reciprocal, and accompanied with the greatest Merit, such an Union cannot fail of producing the purest and most perfect conjugal Happiness.

May the Continuance of which in its utmost extent be long enjoyed by your Majesty; and may you long continue the Darling of the People; the Example and Pattern to your Sex; and to participate in adorning the British Throne; and be blessed with a Race of Princes to rule over an happy and grateful People, are our most ardent Wishes.

The following Address of the Governour, Council and Assembly of the Province of Georgia, having been transmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales: Which Address her Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales,

The humble Address of the Governour, Council and Assembly of His Majesty's Province of Georgia.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governour, Council and Assembly of Georgia, beseech your Royal Highness to accept our warmest Congratulations on the Nuptials of our most gracious Sovereign, whose Union with a Princess, so illustriously descended, and so eminently distinguished, and adorned with every Virtue, as it must be the Source of true Happiness to their Majesties and your Royal Highness, so it promises the greatest Blessings to all His Majesty's Subjects.

Therefore with the utmost Sincerity and Zeal, we wish your Royal Highness long Life to enjoy the great Satisfaction it must give you to see this happy Union blessed with every Circumstance which may afford real Felicity, and that the Royal Pair may leave an Offspring equally great and good as themselves.

Petersburg, April 20. On Saturday last the Emperor entered into his new Palace, where he proposes to reside; and the next Day, being Easter Sunday, there was a very numerous and splendid Court to compliment his Imperial Majesty upon the Occasion. The Foreign Ministers were of the Number, and had the Honour to dine with the Emperor at a Table of near 150 Covers, where the Places were drawn for by Lot, as usual.

Count Mercy made his Visit Yesterday to Prince George of Holstein.

The Chancellor, who has been very ill of a Quinsey, is now so well recovered, that he sees Company.

Last Night, about Ten o'Clock, a Fire broke out near the Canal called the Marka, and burnt down a new Wooden House of Count Henrikow's, the Reformed Church, and a good many small Houses. The Emperor was present from the Beginning, and continued till the Fire was over, giving his Orders, and going from Place to Place, as the Danger seemed to require.

Dusseldorf, May 9. The Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, being determined to raise the Contributions he had demanded of the Duchy of Berg, marched near Twenty Leagues in two Days, and thereby appeared at Elberfeld, when he was least expected. The Corps of Conflans, and the other Troops that were there, retreated with great Precipitation, though not without some Loss. From Elberfeld his Serene Highness advanced to Solingen, and from there, having fulfilled the Object he had in View, by taking Hostages for the Payment of the Contributions, retired without any Loss.

On this Movement the Prince de Conde assembled such Troops as were nearest at Hand, and marched
