AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of July, 1762,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 2d of April last, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty; nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board sixth Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of His Majesty's Royal Navy: And also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the said 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves in like Manner to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May last. — And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been continued and extended to the 31st of this Instant July; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards; be prolonged and extended from the said 31st Day of this Instant July, to the 30th Day of September next: And that the said Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d of April last. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sberpe.

Peterburgh, July 23: The late Emperor's Corps, after having been exposed to publick View for some Days at the Monastery of Newsky, was buried there, without any Funeral Pomp, on the 21st Instant.

Prince George of Holstein has been presented with a considerable Sum of Money, and is continued Stadtholder of Holstein, for which Country he proposes setting out forthwith.

Cologne, August 12. The French have removed all their Sick from the Jesuits, and Dominicans, to the Recollects, where they have about 450 Men: By this Means, the two first Convents are ready to receive the Wounded, in case of a Battle between the two Armies.

The French Commandant has obliged the Burger Masters of this Free Imperial City to transport all the Cannon from the Arsenal, and to mount them on the Bastions of this Town.

As the British Legion is said to have arrived the 10th at Elberfeld; and that a Body of Light Troops were at Solinquin, only seven Leagues from hence; no Boat is permitted to go up or down the Rhine: One that went from hence, contrary to Orders, was pursued, and taken a Quarter of a League from this City; the Boatman was put in Prison; and the Passengers sent back to their respective Inns. All the Boats are ordered to the Left of the River, for Fear the Allies should seize them, and pass the River between this and Dusseldorff.

The French Guard du Corps are still here waiting Orders.

The Regiment of Piemont, which marched with the Prince of Condé to Hachenbourg, or near it; has been sent back to join the Corps under M. d'Auvel, on the Lower Rhine.

Hague, August 17. There has been no decisive Action in Hesse, as the Letters of the 8th Instant gave Reason to expect. We have received subsequent Accounts from the Army of the 13th, the Head Quarters of Prince Ferdinand being then at Wolfershausen. The Fulda became unfordable by a sudden Rain, which swelled that River too much to venture the Troops across it. His Majesty's Army gained nevertheless some Advantages; and a Body of Troops was sent over the River, which took Post opposite the Center of the Enemy's Camp. The French made several yarm Attempts to dislodge them; but were constantly repulsed with Loss, and obliged to leave our Troops in Possession of their Post. Prince Frederick of Brunswick had marched in the mean While, with the greatest Rapidity, behind the French Army, and was already in Possession, on the 7th Instant, of Muhlhausen, Eichwege, and Wanfried: By this Means, the Enemy was watched on all Sides, though they have since made a little Opening to their Communication, by forcing our Posts at Ulrichstein, Pattenberg, and Franckenberg, by the Prince of Condé; and of Friedewalde by General Stainville. The Prince of Condé, by the last Advices, was still at Grunberg. He had endeavoured to force the Post of Hombourg upon the Ohme, in which he failed; as he likewise did in an Attempt upon the Left of the Hereditary Prince's Corps at Ramrot, on the 9th, at that Time commanded by Lieutenant General Hardenberg. The Hereditary Prince is since returned to his Corps from the main Army, and intended to march forward on the 13th Instant.

It is said, that the Trenches were opened before Almeyda on the 25th of July; and the Letters add, that the Spanish Troops are in great Want of Quarters of Refreshment.

Admiralty Office, August 24.

His Majesty's Ship Liverpool, commanded by Captain Richard Knight, sailed the 27th of last Month from Plymouth on a Cruise; and the same Day fell in with and took Le Jacques, a French Privateer, of two Carriage and eight Swivel Guns, with Forty-one Men, from Rocow. And on the 18th Instant, in the Latitude 49. 35. Capt. Knight retook the Two Brothers, bound from Carolina for London with Rice.

General Post Office, July 24, 1762.

Whereas the Post Boy bringing the Mail from Bath was, on the 22d Instant, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven o'Clock at Night, attacked in his Way to Petty France in Gloucestershire, and robbed by three Foot Pads in Sailors Habits, of the Mail containing the following Bags, viz. The Bag from Bath for London, and also the Bye Bag from Bath for Tedbury, Cirencester, Farrington, and Oxford.

This is to give Notice, that whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Persons concerned in committing the said Robbery, of whom no particular Descriptions are as yet come to hand, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament: Or if any Person or Persons, whether an Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery whereby any of the Persons concerned in the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers shall, upon Conviction of any of the Parties, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Henry Potts, Secretary.
