AT the Court at St. James's; the 14th Day of July, 1762,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 2d of April last, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of His Majesty's Royal Navy: And also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the said 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves in like Manner to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman, or Seamen who may secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May last. — And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been continued and extended to the 31st of this Instant July; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said 31st Day of this Instant July, to the 30th Day of September next. And that the said Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d. of April last. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

[Price Three Pence.]

St. James's, September 7.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Officers of the Militia, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Southampton, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Officers of the Militia, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Southampton.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Subjects, with Hearts full of Joy and Affection, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the safe and happy Delivery of the Queen, and the most auspicious Birth of a Prince.

This interesting Event, we promise ourselves, will secure to these Kingdoms the most ineffable Blessings, and, if possible, still more endear the Best of Kings, to the Happiest of Subjects.

It is with the highest Joy and Satisfaction, we find your Majesty's most amiable and beloved Comfort, is, through Divine Providence, most happily recovered; and that his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales is in perfect Health.

We are so truly sensible of the Blessings flowing from your Majesty's Wisdom and Virtue, that, from Interest, as well as Duty and Affection, we pray for your Majesty's Happiness and Prosperity; and we assure ourselves, that your great Example will be an unerring Guide to your Royal Descendant, and form him on the Principles of true Honour and Virtue, to govern a free and loyal People, when the Fullness of Time shall call him to the Throne of his illustrious Ancestors.

We pray the Almighty to continue the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms, to establish your Throne on that most solid and glorious Foundation, on which it now stands, the united Affections of a free and loyal People; confidently relying on your sovereign Wisdom, to obtain what has been so long wished for, (and seems by Heaven reserved for your Majesty's Reign) an honourable and lasting Peace.
