

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Clergy, of the County of Radnor, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Clergy, assembled at the Great Sessions held in and for the County of Radnor, the 27th of August 1762.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person, with most sincere Congratulations on the safe and happy Delivery of the Queen; and on the Birth of a Prince, who, from his natural Relation to our Country, as well as Descent from a Line of the most Illustrious Ancestors, claims every Sentiment and Expression of Joy that Britons can conceive or utter.

The private and public Virtues of an excellent Monarch receive additional Lustre by His Union with a Protestant Family, distinguished for its Love of Liberty, and constant Zeal to the Religious and Civil Happiness of Mankind: Our Prospect of National Felicity, though enlarged by every Circumstance of Royal Wisdom, grows still more extensive by the auspicious Event of the memorable Twelfth of August; a Day which Providence seems to have pointed out as a Presage of future Blessings, in a glorious Successor, to Posterity.

May the same Providence, who has hitherto signified your Majesty's Reign with great and numerous Marks of Divine Favor, increase and multiply every Instance of His Goodness to your Majesty, our Gracious Queen, and his Royal Highness the Prince.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and the rest of the Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Charles Sloane Cadogan, and Soame Jenyns, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and the rest of the Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge:

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council and Burgesses of your ancient and loyal Corporation of Cambridge, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the safe Delivery, and since continued Health of the Queen, and the happy Birth of a Prince.

As every Blessing showered down by Divine Providence on your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, cannot but create in us the sincerest Joy, so the present happy Event, so conducive to the domestic Felicity of your Majesty and your Royal Consort, and so important to the Welfare and Prosperity of these Nations, must in a particular Manner affect us with the highest Satisfaction, and most unfeigned Pleasure.

To our Congratulations, thus humbly offered to your Majesty, we beg Leave to add our earnest Supplications to the Almighty, for the Health of his Royal Highness the Prince, and that he may live to inherit all your Majesty's Virtues, and to transmit that Happiness to our Posterity, which we at present enjoy under the auspicious Government of the most excellent and most amiable of Kings.

Given under our Common Seal this Thirtieth Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and sixty two.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the ancient Corporation of Lymington, has been presented to His Majesty by Adam Drummond, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the ancient Corporation of Lymington.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Recorder, and Burgesses of the ancient Corporation of Lymington, with Hearts full of unfeigned Joy, beg Leave, (with great Humility) to congratulate your Majesty on the Birth of his Royal Highness the Prince, your Majesty's Royal Son. We justly esteem and acknowledge this providential Event, (favoured with such happy Circumstances to our beloved and most gracious Queen) as a particular Mark of Divine Regard, extended to your Majesty and your Subjects, in Return for your Majesty's unbounded Virtues. We will constantly, and most assiduously pray for every Blessing that Heaven can bestow in his Kingdom, and the Life to come, on your Majesty and your most Illustrious Family.

Town Hall, Lymington, August 25. 1762.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Northampton, has been presented to His Majesty by the Honourable Spencer Compton, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Northampton, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Northampton, rejoicing at every Good that attends your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, humbly beg Leave to pay our most respectful Congratulations to your Majesty on the auspicious Birth of a Prince of Great Britain.

The Divine Goodness is manifested to us by bestowing on these Kingdoms such an early Fruit of your Majesty's wife and happy Marriage.

Such a Blessing fills our Minds with a Commemoration of the glorious Times of Liberty hitherto enjoyed under the most excellent Government of your Majesty and your Royal Ancestors.

Such