Warsaw, August 21. M. de Breteuil, the French Minister to the late Emperor of Russia Peter III, left this Place last Night, upon his Return to Petersburg.

We hear that the Russian Minister at Mittau has delivered a Memorial to the Regency of Courland, declaring, that the Empress his Sovereign is determined to support the Duke of Biron in his Pretensions to that Duchy.

The Body of Russian Troops, commanded by General Czernichew, has passed Posen in its Way Home; and that of Romanzow is going by Smolensko.

Breslau, August 29. Marshal Daun continues with the main Body of his Army between Glatz and Braunaw. The King of Prussia is still at Peterwaldau. There are daily Skirmishes between the advanced Posts and the Patroles of both Armies, but they are of little or no Consequence.

The latest Accounts from before Schweidnitz of the 27th say, that in the Night between the 21st and 22d Instant, the Prussians attacked and carried for the second Time the Fleche de Strigau; that on the 22d the third Parallel was finished; and that the Miners were actually at Work, and the Sap carried on to within a few Paces of the Crete of the Glacis.

Copenhagen, September 4. We hear from Sweden, that an Accident happened at Droningholm the 25th past, upon the Celebration of the Queen of Sweden's Name Day; which might have been attended with very fatal Consequences. The Theatre, where the King and Queen, the Royal Family, the Foreign Ministers, and many Persons of the First Distinction, were assembled, took Fire, which got hold of the Roof so suddenly, that in less than Half an Hour all was consumed. Three or Four of the common People were burnt. The rest escaped, though some not without Hurt, amongst which last are the Countess Wrangel, and Mademoiselle Bonde, the Senator's Daughter.

Brunswick, September 3. Yesterday Morning Eight Pieces of Battering Cannon; and Four Mortars, were sent from this Place to the Siege of Cassel, which, it is thought, will be undertaken in seven or eight Days.

Hague, September 7. The Prince of Condé having retired successively as far back as Friedberg, in order to make a Junction with the Marshals Soubise and d'Estrees, abandoned even the Heights near that Town, and marched to Rodheim on the 29th past, on which Day the Hereditary Prince arrived at Wolfersheim. His Highness thought it necessary
