

Liberties, will be extended to our latest Posterity in their purest State.

May his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales long enjoy the endearing Advantages of your Majesty's exemplary Virtues, and paternal Care.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it shall be our constant Care to inculcate in the Minds of your Subjects every Sentiment of Loyalty, Principle of Justice, and respectful Obedience to the Laws, so wisely calculated to secure the Peace and good Order of the Community.

The following Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, having been transmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to His Majesty. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, humbly beseech your Majesty to receive our very sincere Congratulations upon Her Majesty's safe and happy Delivery, and the Birth of a Prince; an Event the more transporting to your Generous and Royal Breast, from its Importance to the Welfare of your People.

Ardent in our Affection to your Majesty's Person, we rejoice in the Prosperity of your Royal House, and the Accumulation of your domestick Felicity. Zealous for your Government, we glory in its Strength, as, under Heaven, the great Support of our Liberties, and feel the Sense of the present Blessings we enjoy under that Government, heightened and augmented by the happy Prospect now afforded us, that it shall be so with our Children after us.

May that benign Providence, which directed and rendered successful the noble Efforts of our Forefathers, in bringing about that happy Establishment, by which the Rights of British Subjects were asserted and secured, bless your Majesty with a numerous Progeny, and thereby graciously manifest to your People, that it is the Divine Will that your Royal Line shall continue, and, closely connected with it, their Liberties remain till Time shall be no more.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, this Twenty-seventh Day of August, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-two.

The following Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, having been transmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, do entreat your Majesty's gracious Acceptance of our humble and loyal Congratulations on the important Accession to the Happiness of your Majesty's Reign, by the auspicious Birth of a Prince.

We adore the Divine Providence, which hath thus graciously condescended to the Prayers of a loyal People: We gratefully acknowledge our own inestimable Blessings; and thankfully receive the loyal

Hope, that the Influence of your Majesty's Princely Virtues is not to be confined to our Days, but shall prove as lasting as the Glory which attends them: That our Posterity shall share the Effects of that Justice and Mildness, the peculiar Characters of your Majesty's Government; of that Wisdom and Equity, which reflect such Honour on your Councils; and of those unparalleled Successes which have attended your Arms: Successes which, we trust, will at Length recall your Enemies to those Sentiments of Peace and Moderation, from which your Majesty hath never been diverted by all the Lustre of your Conquests.

We account it our peculiar Duty, firmly to unite with all your faithful People in the most devoted Attachment to your Majesty and your Royal House: And to our zealous Endeavours to teach and enforce the grateful Returns of Loyalty and Affection to our gracious Sovereign, we cannot fail to add our ardent and incessant Prayers, that the Almighty may continue His Favour and Protection to your Majesty and your Royal Consort: Preserve and bless the Prince, and, in due Time, make him like His August Father, the Illustrious Instrument of Happiness to these Kingdoms.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, the Nobility, the Gentlemen, and Clergy of the County of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Brownlow Bertie, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, the Nobility, the Gentlemen, and Clergy of the County of Lincoln, assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, the Nobility, the Gentlemen, and Clergy of the County of Lincoln, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our earnest Congratulations upon the safe and happy Delivery of the Queen, and the great and important Event of the Birth of a Prince.

We offer up our Thanks to the Almighty for the Blessings this Nation receives, in his having placed the Sceptre in your Majesty's Hand; also for this Prospect, of its remaining in your Royal House. May the Supreme Guide shower still farther Happiness on this Country, by protecting the Health of the Royal Infant, and restoring Her Majesty; making Her in Time the joyful Mother of a numerous Issue.

Great Sir, We trust that Providence may lengthen your Majesty's Days to the utmost Extent: Long may you reign the Guardian and Protector of Great Britain; and when the unavowed Period comes, may those Blessings and Virtues, with which your Majesty fills your Throne, be transmitted down, though late, to your Posterity; and may there never be wanting one of your Majesty's Illustrious Descendants to fill the British Throne.

May your Majesty long enjoy Conjugal Felicity, with the Affection of a grateful and happy People. And as the many signal Advantages, gained by the Valour of your Majesty's Arms in the Course of this War, afford us Ground for Hope, may our Wishes be crowned by its terminating in a safe, lasting, and honourable Peace; and may your Majesty, having subdued your haughty Enemies, amply reap the Blessings thereof.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Chester, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Cholmondeley, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury,