

Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Chester. September 7, 1762.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Chester, humbly beg Leave to address your Sacred Person, and, amidst the united Congratulations of a faithful People, to express our sincere and cordial Joy on the happy Delivery of your Royal Consort our gracious Queen, and the auspicious Birth of a Prince.

An Event so fortunate must necessarily fill the Breasts of all your Majesty's loyal Subjects with the highest Pleasure; but we have the Happiness of enjoying a more peculiar Satisfaction on this Occasion, having the Honour of approaching your Majesty's Throne, under the early Auspices of an Earl of Chester.

We are truly sensible of the many Blessings which Divine Providence has showered upon us since your Majesty's happy Accession to the Crown of these Kingdoms: Our Blessing is now rendered complete by the Birth of a Prince, who, through your parental Care and Example, may perpetuate the Glories of your Majesty's Reign to our Posterity, and blend with Wisdom the Laurels of War, and the Olive Branch of Peace, to the future Welfare and Happiness of Great Britain.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Monmouth, has been presented to His Majesty by John Roberts, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Monmouth.

Most gracious Sovereign,

AMONGST the general Congratulations of a happy People, permit your faithful Subjects of the County of Monmouth to express their unfeigned Joy on the safe Delivery of your Royal Consort, and the Birth of a Prince, who we trust will deliver down to latest Posterity those Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign. May He, who is the King of Kings, extend His peculiar Providence over the Royal Infant, and protect him in his tender Years! May his Youth bloom with every Grace; his Manhood ripen with every Virtue: May he live to be a Comfort to his illustrious Parents; the Delight of his native Country; and the Ornament of Mankind: May he live, very late, fill the Throne of his Ancestors with hereditary Dignity; and approve himself a truly British Prince, the worthy Offspring of a British King.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Grand Jury, Justices, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Worcester, has been presented to His Majesty by Samuel Heilic, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Grand Jury, Justices, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Worcester, truly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Government, beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations for the great Happiness which Heaven has vouchsafed to us, in sending the Queen a safe Delivery, and giving us a Prince to perpetuate your Royal Race; a Blessing most devoutly and ardently wished for. May those Virtues, which adorn your Majesty's Mind, descend to this your Royal Issue; and may the Almighty grant your Majesty a long Life, to see those Virtues increase with his Years: That Victory may crown your Battles, and subdue the Enemies of these your Kingdoms; and that Peace may diffuse her Sweets through this Land of Liberty, is the zealous Wish of your faithful and dutiful Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Brownlow Bertie, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Lincoln, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of that Duty and Affection to your Sacred Person and Government, which become the most faithful Subjects to the best of Kings.

Let us express the Sincerity of our Joy on the happy Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of a young Prince, Heir Apparent to the Crown of these Realms, the strongest Pledge of Conjugal Affection, and the certain Prefage of the future Felicity of your People.

This great and desirable Event will give strength to the common Cause of the Liberty and Independence of Europe, against the unnatural Union formed to oppress it; and the Preservation of your Sacred Person, the Stability of your Government, and the Continuance of the Protestant Succession in your illustrious House, will ever be most dear to us, and essential to the Happiness of all your Subjects.

We are taught by the Experience of near fifty Years, as well as by your Majesty's known Wisdom and Goodness, to consider this as a great national Event, as a new Pledge for the lasting Security of our Religious and Civil Constitution. But we do not confine our Joy to that, which is naturally the principal Object of British Minds; we should be most ungrateful to your Majesty not to sympathize in this Accession to your private Happiness, which providentially took Place at a Time when your Royal Mind
