

was engaged in the glorious Work of restoring Peace to your Subjects, and to the World.

May your Majesty long continue the greatest and the happiest of Kings, superior to foreign Enemies, and without a domestick Enemy. And may the Prince, with whom Heaven has now blessed your Majesty and the Nation, resemble his Royal Parents in their Virtues, and prove, like his Ancestors, a faithful Guardian to the Religion, Laws and Liberties of his Country.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses, of the Borough of Harwich, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable Charles Townshend, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Harwich, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincere Congratulations upon the Birth of a Prince of Wales; an event, which cannot fail to diffuse an universal Joy through your Kingdoms, from every Consideration, either of private Happiness, or of public Good.

Possessed, as your Majesty's Subjects are, of every Blessing which the best framed Constitution of Civil Government can convey, they cannot but share in that Satisfaction, which your Majesty and your Royal Consort feel, upon seeing this Object of your Domestic Solitude so happily accomplished; and it would be Insensibility without Example, if they did not rejoice in the Assurance they now have, of seeing the Blessings of their own Times transmitted to their Descendants, through a Prince descended from your Majesty; trained up under the Authority of your Parental Instruction, and formed under the Influence of your great Example

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, has been presented to His Majesty by Charles Townshend, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

MAY it please your Majesty to permit us, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, to express our unfeigned Congratulations, and a Heart-felt Joy, on the safe Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of a Prince: An Event, in which we sympathize with your Majesty; since your Majesty's private Happiness is closely connected with that of your People.

It is with great Pleasure, that we can look back to that Time, when your Majesty's Family first ascended the Throne of these Kingdoms; so, intirely, hath the Constitution, both in Church and State, been preserved.

But our Pleasure is greatly increased, when we reflect on the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's truly glorious Reign.

We cannot therefore be suspected of Insincerity in expressing our Joy, in the Prospect of having this Happiness perpetuated by your Royal Descendants.

If an Example, worthy of all Imitation, hath any Effect on the human Heart, we are confident there will not be wanting, under the Divine Providence, a virtuous Prince to sway the Sceptre of these Realms.

We are so compleatly sensible of our present Enjoyments, that it is as much our Interest as our Duty, to beseech the great Disposer of all Events for a Continuance of them.

May the Happiness, we derive from your Majesty, be transmitted to our Posterity, and may they express the same Gratitude for it.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of King's Lynn in Norfolk, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir John Turner, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of King's Lynn in Norfolk, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

TO accept our most cordial Congratulations, which Duty, Affection, and Gratitude call upon us humbly to present to your Majesty, upon the Queen's safe and happy Delivery, and the Birth of a Prince. An Event so interesting must render your Majesty's domestick Happiness compleat, and afford the most pleasing Prospect to your People, that those Civil and Religious Rights, which they enjoy under your Majesty's Administration and Government, will be transmitted to their Posterity; and the auspicious Day, on which this fortunate Event happened, already distinguished in our Annals, is now rendered still further memorable by the Birth of his Royal Highness, from whom we hope that future Generations will derive the Enjoyment of those Blessings, which the happy Accession of your Majesty's Royal Family to the Throne of these Realms, has hitherto secured to us.

May Heaven soon restore and confirm the Queen's Health, and grant Length of Days to the Royal Infant! And may your Majesty's Descendants, to the latest Posterity, inherit your Virtues; and, like you, Great Sir! guard, protect, and adorn these Kingdoms, and become the Glory and Happiness of a brave and free People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the said Borough, the Eighth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-two.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Howe: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the safe Delivery of the Queen, and the happy Birth of a Prince; a Blessing most earnestly wished and prayed for by every Lover of his Country, and for which we return our most unfeigned and hearty Thanks to the Divine Providence.

We are truly grateful for the Prosperity, the Happiness, and the undisturbed Possession of all our Religious and Civil Rights, which we have long enjoyed under the mild and legal Government of your Majesty and your Illustrious House; and are fully sensible that the Preservation of these invaluable Blessings to us, and our Posterity, depends, under God, upon the Continuance of the Crown in your Royal Family. We therefore reflect with inexpressible Joy and Satisfaction upon the pleasing Prospect of having a Prince formed under the wise Instructions, and great Example of your Majesty, who will in due Time copy the Virtues, as well as inherit the Crown of his Ancestors; and will thereby become the glorious and well-beloved
