On their going down from the Provost's Lodge into the Quadrangle, the whole School was drawn up in several Lines to receive their Majesties, and saluted them as they went into their Chaise, with a joyful Cry of, Vivant Rex & Regina.

My Lord Chamberlain, by His Majesty's Order, left a very noble Present, amounting to 230l. to be disposed of as the Provost and Masters of the School should think best.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th Day of September, 1762,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 2d of April last, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of His Majesty's Royal Navy: And also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the said 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves in like Manner to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May last. — And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been continued and extended to the 30th of this Instant September; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said 30th Day of this Instant September, to the 30th Day of November next. And that the said Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d of April last. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

St. James's, September 28.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council, of the City of Gloucester, has been presented to His Majesty by George Augustus Selwyn, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously,

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Council of Gloucester, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on the safe Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of a Prince, the first Pledge of your own, and of your People's Happiness: Circumstances these the more endearing to us, as happening on a Day so propitious to the Laws, Liberties, and Religion of Britain, by the Accession of your Illustrious House.

This Increase of your Majesty's Family affords us the most pleasing Prospect of a long Continuance of National Felicity; and fills our Hearts with grateful Sentiments to the Supreme Disposer of Events, and Author of all Blessings.

Our ardent Prayers to the Almighty are, That your Majesty may long, very long, reign over us, the Darling and Happiness of your Subjects: And when it shall please Him to take you to Himself, that the Prince, formed by the Example, and educated by the Precepts of his Royal Parents, may
