

Address. His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility and Gentlemen of the County of Perth, assembled at Perth.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Nobility and Gentlemen of the County of Perth, beg Leave, with all Humility, to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the Birth of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and upon her Majesty's happy Recovery.

The constant and uniform Attention which your Majesty has shewn to the Happiness of your Subjects, must excite, in every grateful Breast, the warmest Wishes for your Majesty's domestick, as well as publick Felicity, and for the Continuance to our Posterity, of the many valuable Benefits we derive from your Majesty's mild and equitable Government. In this interesting Event are both these Objects united, and by the Divine Blessing upon this Royal Infant, these Wishes will be accomplished.

May an honourable and lasting Peace crown this auspicious Year. May your Majesty's Reign be long as it has been glorious, that by your Example, as well as Instruction, the Mind of this young Prince may be established in the just Principles of Government. May Her Majesty enjoy many Years of perfect Health, that Her amiable Qualities may continue to heighten every Comfort, and soothe every Care of your Royal Breast. And may there never be wanting an Heir of your Majesty's August House, to govern these Kingdoms, with the same tender Regard to their Religion, their Liberties, and their Constitution, which has so eminently distinguished the Administration of your Illustrious Progenitors, and which your Majesty has made the invariable Rule of your own Conduct.

Signed at Perth, this 23d of September, 1762; by the Appointment, and in Presence of the Meeting,
Kinnoull, Præses.

The following Address of the Mayor and Approved Men of the Town of Guldeford in the County of Surry, has been presented to His Majesty by George Onslow, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Approved Men of the Town of Guldeford in the County of Surry.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to join in the general Acclamations of Joy, in approaching your Royal Person, and congratulating your Majesty, and our most Gracious Queen your Royal Consort, on the Birth of a Prince.

As it must give your Majesties the greatest Happiness, so it is to your Majesty's Subjects the most important Event (next to the Preservation of your most Sacred Life) that can add to the every other Blessing they enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Government.

After, therefore, returning Thanks to the Divine Providence for this Blessing, and for the happy Recovery of Her Majesty's Health, we most devoutly implore the Almighty, to grant to the Royal Infant Health and Length of Days; and that under the Paternal Care and Tuition of your Majesty, and animated by your Royal Example, he may very late ascend the Imperial Throne of your Majesty's Dominions, possessed of every Regal Virtue, which so conspicuously makes your Majesty the Darling of a Free and Loyal People; and that there never may be wanting a Prince of your Majesty's most Illustrious House, to perpetuate these Blessings to our latest Posterity.

And we also most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on this last Addition of Glory to your Majesty's Arms, by the Conquest of the Havannah; a most important Addition to your Majesty's Dominions.

Given under the Common Seal of our Corporation, at our Guildhall, this fourth Day of October, 1762.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Officers of Militia, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Charles Greville Montagu, and the Right Hon. Lord Carysfort, their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Officers of Militia, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden at Huntingdon in and for the said County, the Fifth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-two.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Officers of Militia, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the safe Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of the Prince. When so fair a Prospect of stable and lasting Felicity is opened to your Kingdoms, your People cannot but entertain it with the greatest Joy, at the same Time that it fills their Hearts with the most awful Adoration of the Divine Providence for this early Pledge of a numerous Off-spring designed for the Security of these Nations. A King of Great Britain will, at all Times, and on all Occasions, be looked upon as one of the most important Protectors of the Civil and Religious Liberties of Mankind. All Europe, therefore, must take a very sensible Part in an Event that promises so permanent a Blessing on the Protestant Cause, founded, as it is, on the firmest Basis of Freedom and pure Religion. May your Majesty and the Queen long enjoy every private and publick Happiness; and may the Prince of Wales grow up to be the Satisfaction and Delight of your Lives, and fully recompence all your Cares and Anxiety for his and the Nation's future Welfare. The Reduction of the Havannah is so closely connected with what must be the Wish of every good Citizen, a Safe and Honourable Peace, that we cannot but desire to mix ours with the publick Joy, and the Patriot Sensations of your Majesty's own Heart, upon a Conquest so truly glorious to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and to the Success of your Arms. We therefore must humbly intreat your Majesty's Acceptance of our warmest Congratulations on these happy Occasions. May your Majesty's constant Attention for the Peace and Prosperity of your People always meet with the most ardent Returns of Loyalty and Affection from them. Whilst your Majesty really possesses the Hearts of your Subjects, may they never be wanting in Honour to your Person, and dutiful Submission to your Authority: And may neither their own private Interests, nor particular Passions, ever disappoint your Majesty's Cares for the Publick Service. A mutual Exchange of good Offices between King and People answers best the Ends of all Government; and no particular Constitution more eminently proves this Truth, than that of Great Britain, over which your Majesty is placed by the united Suffrages of a Free People.

The