

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Hertford, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy of the County of Hertford, assembled at Hertford, on Monday the 4th Day of October, 1762.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WITH joyful Hearts we (beg Leave to) felicitate your Majesty on the Birth of a Prince, and the perfect Establishment of the Health of our most gracious Queen, your Royal Consort.

From this happy Event, we presage that our Religion, our Laws, our Liberties, and every Thing essentially dear to British Subjects, will, by Means of your Royal Race, remain securely fixed on the solid Basis of our present happy Constitution both in Church and State.

Permit us at the same Time to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Success of your Fleets and Armies, in the important Conquest of the Havannah, (and all its Dependencies) an Event which we hope will be productive of every good Consequence to your Majesty, and these Kingdoms.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir James Dashwood, Bart. their High Steward, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Oxford, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with our sincerest Congratulations upon an Event not more auspicious to your own domestick Happiness, than to the Welfare and Prosperity of your People.

The Birth of a Prince, the Heir of your Illustrious House, cannot but greatly encrease the present Felicity of these Nations, by giving us the most pleasing Prospect of continuing, to our latest Posterity, those Blessings which so eminently distinguish your Majesty's Reign.

Permit us, Sir, at the same Time, to express our most grateful Sense of the Goodness of Divine Providence, which has blessed your Nuptial bed with the most endearing Pledge of Conjugal Affection, and restored your Royal Consort to the Enjoyment of Her former Health.

We indulge ourselves in the highest Confidence, that a Prince, born of such Illustrious Parents, educated under the Inspection, and formed by the Example, of such consummate Virtue, will, in some future Time, add Lustre to the Imperial Throne, and diffuse Happiness and Glory to a Free, Brave, and Grateful People.

Given under our Common Seal at our Council-Chamber, the Seventeenth Day of September, in the Second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants, of the City of Rochester, has been presented to His Majesty by Admiral Townsend, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen; and Assistants of the City of Rochester, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants; of your ancient City of Rochester, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the auspicious Birth of a Prince.

This Event, so conducive to the private Felicity of your Majesty and your Royal Consort, (the constant Object of our warmest Wishes) and at the same Time so essential to the future Happiness of your People, has filled us with the sincerest Joy, and raised in us the most sanguine Expectations of the Blessings our Posterity may enjoy, under a Prince formed by your Majesty's Tuition and Example.

May His Royal Highness long experience your Majesty's Paternal Care; and late, very late, may your Majesty transmit to him your Crown, and with it, its brightest Ornament, the united Hearts of a free and faithful People.

Given under our Common Seal this Twelfth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-two.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Gentry, Clergy and Burgesses of the Borough of Ripon, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Ripon, together with the Gentry, Clergy and Burgesses thereof, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the safe and happy Delivery of the Queen, and the auspicious Birth of a Prince. An Event most earnestly wished for by all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and which, we promise ourselves, will secure to these Kingdoms the most inestimable Blessings, and, if possible, still more endear your Majesty to your happy Subjects. May his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, under the glorious Influence of your Majesty's Example, possess every noble, every princely Virtue; and may your Majesty's Reign be long, prosperous, and glorious; and may there never be wanting on the British Throne, one of your Majesty's Royal Race, who may inherit all your Virtues; and transmit the Happiness and Security to Posterity, which we so fully enjoy under the gracious and happy Government of the most amiable and best of Kings.

Dated September 28, 1762.
