St. James's, December 7.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Hereford, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Hereford, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Hereford, beg Leave to approach your most Sacred Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the Birth of an Heir Apparent to your Crown, and the happy Recovery of our gracious Queen.

Your People are nearly interested in, and joyfully partake of, your Majesty's Happiness. The Increase of your Family opens to us the pleasing Prospect of future Felicity to these Kingdoms, and strengthens the Foundation of those Blessings we at present enjoy under your auspicious Government.

May length of Years extend the Glories of your Reign, and the Influence of your Example, and Impressions of your Precepts, establish in the young Prince all those Virtues which endear you to your Subjects, and make him the happy Means of continuing our National Prosperity to succeeding Generations.

Given under our Common Seal, the 29th Day of September, 1762.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Justices, Bailiffs Peers and Burgeses of Wenlock in the County of Salop, has been presented to His Majesty by Brock Forrester, and Cecil Forrester, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Justices, Bailiffs Peers and Burgeses of Wenlock in the County of Salop.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our unfeigned Congratulations on the Birth of a Prince, the Heir of your Crown and Dignities. Replete with Gratitude for the unspeakable Blessings we possess, with what Joy must we be affected at an Event, which opens to us the fairest Prospect of the Continuance of them to ourselves and our Posterity. May the Almighty, by whom Kings reign, shower down his choicest Favours on your Majesty and your Illustrious Consort: May you long live an exemplary Pattern of every publick and private Virtue: May His good Providence, in a peculiar Manner, protect the Royal Infant, watch over him in his tender Years, and adorn his mature Age with every Princely Grace; and late, very late, may he succeed to the Throne of these Realms, and transmit to future Ages the full Enjoyment of our present Blessings.

Given under our Common Seal at Wenlock, the Twenty-ninth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-two.

The following Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Comburgesses, Burgeses, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Borough and Neighbourhood of Grantham in the County of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Cull, Esq; their Deputy Recorder, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Comburgesses, Burgeses, Gentlemen and Clergy of the Borough and Neighbourhood of Grantham in the County of Lincoln.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, &c. greatly sensible of our Happiness on the auspicious Birth of a Prince of Wales, most heartily join our Congratulations with those of other your Subjects, on an Event so pleasing to your Majesty and our gracious Queen, and so interesting to the whole Nation.

It is with infinite Pleasure we view the Publick Cause and Glorious Reign of the best of Monarchs, so early distinguished by to great an Addition to your Majesties domestic Happiness: It is our most sincere Wish and a devout Prayer, that Divine Providence may give a Stability to your Majesty's Government, by a large Increase of every publick and every private Blessing; and that after a long uninterrupted Enjoyment of Heaven's choicest Blessings, your Majesty may, full of Years, deliver down the Throne of these Kingdoms to a Prince born a Britan, so merited by your Majesty's Intimations and Example, to all that is great and worthy of a Christian King, and giving us the most certain Prospect of the Continuance and Perpetuity of the Glory and Prosperity of our Country.

Nor can we omit the present Occasion of expressing our Joy with our Fellow-Subjects, on the Success of your Majesty's Arms in the Reduction of the important Fortress of the Havannah: We impute it entirely to the Blessing of God on the Harmony and Zeal of our Land and Sea Forces, that our Enemies are thus compelled to feel and acknowledge the Superiority of our Arms; and it is our general Hope and Desire, that so many Conquests may procure for us an Honourable, a Glorious, and a Lasting, Peace.

The following Address of the Mayor, Alderman, and Burgeses of the Borough of Sudbury, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Fomerau and John Henniker, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Alderman, and Burgeses of the Borough of Sudbury, in Common Hall assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the Borough of Sudbury, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our cordial Congratulations upon the Auspicious Birth of the Prince of Wales, and the happy Recovery of the Queen your Royal Consort.
