St. James's, May 18.

THIS Day a most numerous Body of the Merchants and Traders of the City of London waited on His Majesty; and being introduced to His Majesty by the Earl Gower, Lord Chamberlain of the Household, Edmund Boehm, Esq; made their Compliments in the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Merchants and Traders of the City of London.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Merchants and Traders of the City of London, inviolably attached by every Tie of Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave to return your Majesty our humble Thanks for the constant and effectual Support and Protection we enjoyed during the late War; and at the same Time, most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your truly paternal and humane Endeavours to restore to your People, and to Europe in general, the Blessings of Peace.

Through the Care and Attention of Government, the National Commerce, amidst the Tumults and Dangers of the most extended War this Country was ever engaged in, has been carried on with a Degree of Security and Success beyond Example: This, however, did not lead us to forget the adverse Accidents to which the Nature of War continually exposed us, nor to cease wishing for that Stability and Permanency, which Peace alone could give.

We have now the Satisfaction to see a War, founded in Justice and Necessity, prosecuted with Vigour and Glory, at length concluded, on Terms of real and solid Advantage, by a Treaty of Peace, every where marked with that Moderation and Equity which afford the fairest Prospect of its Continuance.

With Hearts, therefore, full of the highest Sense of your Majesty's Attention to the general Welfare of your Subjects, as well as to their Commercial Interests, and animated with equal Zeal for your Person, and Abhorrence of all Disrespect to your Dignity, we assure your Majesty, that nothing in our Power shall ever be wanting, that may, in any Degree, contribute to render your Majesty's Reign easy and happy over a loyal and grateful People.
