

your illustrious Example; and make those Returns of filial Gratitude to your Majesty's parental Goodness, which the Voice of Inclination, not of Custom, dictates.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Town of Cambridge, has been presented to His Majesty by Soame Jenyns, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Town of Cambridge.

MAY it please your Majesty to accept the Congratulations of your dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Town of Cambridge, upon the Success of your Majesty's Endeavours to restore the Publick Tranquillity of a great Part of Europe.

The Advantages of the Peace which your Majesty has made, will we hope be fully manifested by its long Continuance. Your faithful Subjects may then indulge the Expectation of being relieved from many of those heavy Burthens, which they cheerfully submitted to for the Support of a War, entered into by your Royal Grandfather, whose Memory will be ever dear to us, upon Principles of true Policy, and attended with the most glorious and unexampled Successes in every Quarter of the World.

May your Majesty's Reign be greatly prolonged for the Good and Happiness of your People; and may our latest Posterity look up to your Royal Descendants, with the Confidence that we do to your Majesty, for the full Enjoyment of those invaluable Civil and Religious Liberties, the best Birthrights of Englishmen, which have always derived Protection and Support from the Kings of your Majesty's illustrious House.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Powis, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Montgomery.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of your County of Montgomery, humbly intreat your Majesty to accept of our sincere Congratulations on the Establishment of a General Peace, not only to these your Kingdoms, but throughout all Europe.

The great and extensive Acquisitions now secured to your Subjects by this Peace, exceed every Thing that has been done by your Predecessors; and we now enjoy the Happiness of seeing your Majesty the Restorer of Tranquillity to your own People, to your Allies, and to Mankind.

May you be long preserved by Providence to reign over a grateful and happy People; and may the Blessings we enjoy be (through your Majesty's Issue) transmitted to our latest Posterity.

Dated the 2d of May, in the Third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Lieutenant Governor and the States of the Island of Guernsey, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Delawarr, Governor of the said Island, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's ever loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lieutenant Governor, and the States of your Island of Guernsey, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude, to congratulate your Majesty upon the honourable and advantageous Peace lately procured by your Majesty to your Subjects, after a bloody and expensive War, in which Divine Providence has so crowned the Justice of your Cause (by many Victories and Conquests gained by your Majesty's Arms over your Enemies) as will render the Annals of these Times the Admiration, not only of the present, but also of future Ages. And we have Reason to believe, that amongst the many other Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, this Peace (by the Favour of God) will procure us a firm and lasting Tranquillity, by which Means, Arts and Sciences, Trade and Agriculture, the Offsprings of Peace, will flourish and increase.

May the same Divine Providence, who has so eminently distinguished your Majesty by so many excellent Virtues, and his Protection, continue his Care over your Majesty, and grant you a long Space of Time to reign over your People, to compleat their Happiness, as much as it can be here below.

These are the sincere and hearty Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects.

Vienna, May 14. Her Imperial Majesty's Birthday was celebrated Yesterday with great Pomp, and the Court, on that Occasion, was very splendid.

To-day the Court goes to Luxenbourg to spend several Weeks. Count Finkenstein is said to be designed for his Prussian Majesty's Minister to this Court; and Baron Rud de Collenberg will go as Imperial Minister to that of Berlin.

M. Holzen, Vice-Governor of this City, is preparing to resign his Post, and to retire into the Country for the Remainder of his Life.

Munich May 17. Next Thursday the Electress sets out for the Baths of Embs: Her Serene Highness will be accompanied by 140 Persons. It is believed the Elector will meet that Princess on her Return from the Baths, and that they will spend some Time at the Court of Mannheim.

Hambourg, June 3. Prince Augustus of Holstein, Bishop of Lubeck, arrived here a few Days ago with the Princess his Consort, from his Residence of Estin, and proposes to make a Stay here of about six Weeks.

According to Advices received Yesterday from Berlin, the King of Prussia intended to set out on the 6th Instant from Potsdam, in order to make a Tour in his Dominions in the Circle of Westphalia.

Paris, June 3. The King, accompanied by the Dauphin, went on Tuesday Morning, at Eleven of the Clock, held his Bed of Justice, and caused several Edicts and Declarations to be enrolled. His Majesty was saluted going and returning by the Artillery of the City, the Bastile, the Invalids, Arsenal, &c. It was near Two when he quitted the Parliament-House.
