Most gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpöole, in Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to present to your Majesty our unfeigned Acknowledgments of the constant and effectual Support granted to our Commerce, by Means whereof it has flourished in an extraordinary Degree during the Course of a dangerous and extensive War.

The following Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects; the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, with the Utmost Gratitude, remembering that Security with which, through your Majesty's Protection, we were so peculiarly blessed during the Course of a long and perilous War, do now, at its Conclusion, with all Humility congratulate your Majesty upon that unspeakable Pleasure, which you generously feel in seeing its Horrors and Calamities every where cease, and in being the happy Instrument, under Heaven, for the accomplishing so great a Blessing.

Having the firmest Reliance upon your Majesty's Paternal Care and gracious Attention to the General Good, we dutifully repose ourselves in an entire Assurance, that the Terms upon which your Majesty hath put an End to this War, are honourable for your Crown, and productive of lasting Advantages to your People. We view those unparalleled Successes which have laid the Foundations for Peace, as the sure Pledges of its Continuance: And considering the undisturbed Enjoyment of our Religion, our Laws, and our Liberties, under your Majesty's auspicious Government, as a State of the most consummate human Felicity, deem Conquest only valuable as a Mean to secure it.

Permit us, most Gracious Sovereign, to take this and every Occasion of renewing to your Majesty the sincere Profession of our warmest Affections and unalterable Loyalty: And, when your Royal Endeavours, so glorious and effectual in vindicating your Dominions from foreign Injuries, shall by your Majesty as happily be apply'd to the establishing domestic Tranquility and the Improvement of the various Blessings of Peace, and your Kingdoms shall flourish under your Majesty's benign Influence, may the Demeanour of your faithful Subjects of this City be such in your Sight as to merit their Share in the general Prosperity.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, this seventh Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.
