Pay Office in Broad-street, June 1, 1763

Whereas it frequently happens, that the Widows and Representatives of Sailors belonging to His Majesty's Service who die at Sea or in Foreign Parts, ignorantly apply to the Ecclesiastical Court of the Jurisdiction nearest to the Place where such Widows and Representatives happen to live, in order to obtain Administration or Probats of the Wills of such Seamen.

And whereas no Wages, due to Seamen as aforesaid, can legally or safely be paid, as the Law now stands, on producing any Administrations not granted by, or Wills which have not been proved in, the Prerogative Court of the See of Canterbury, held at Doctors Commons, London: In order therefore to save unnecessary Trouble and Expence to such Widows or Representatives, Notice is hereby given, that they should not apply for any Wages due to the Deceased, until they have taken out Letters of Administration in the said Prerogative Court, and in no other whatever.

And whereas the Widows and next of Kin of Seamen are sometimes deterred from proving their Wills and Administring, by a Notion, that the Fees and Expences attending the same are so large, that it is not worth their While to entitle themselves to receive Wages which amount only to small Sums.

Notice is hereby given, that the Charge at Doctors Commons of taking Administrations or proving the Wills, in common Form, of Seamen dying in the Pay of His Majesty's Navy, by the Widows, Children, Fathers, Mothers, Brothers or Sisters of such Seamen where the Effects of the Deceased are under the several Rates of Five Pounds, Twenty Pounds, Forty Pounds, and Sixty Pounds, by Commissions or otherwise, amount to no more than the respective Sums particularly specified in the Table or Schedule hereunder mentioned, Stamps Office and Proctors Fees all included.

A Schedule or Table of the Charges at Doctors Commons, of taking Administrations, or proving Wills, in common Form, of Seamen dying in the Pay of His Majesty's Navy, by the Widows, Children, Fathers, Mothers, Brothers or Sisters of such Seamen, distinguished according to the Amount of the Deceased's Effects, and as taken without or by Commission, and wherein Stamps, and all Office and Proctors Fees are included.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, the Small Pox, Measles, Pleurifies, Quinsies, acute Rheumatisms, Colds, and all inflammatory Disorders, as well as for those which are called Nervous, Hypochondriac, and Hysteric, Price 2s. 6d. the Paper; with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

** Experience having taught, that his Medicine, which is a safe and certain Cure for the above Disorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as usual in Marble Paper, the Commissioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be so preserved for the Use of all His Majesty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is also made up in the same Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for those who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.

This Medicine is sold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, and by those who are empowered by him to sell it in the several Towns of Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies.

Of whom may be had,

Dr. James's Mild Powder for the Disorders above-mentioned, which is prepared from the same Materials as the other Powder, but so contrived as to have little or no sensible Operation, and upon that Account is the more proper for Women under certain Circumstances, Infants, and those whose Constitutions are extremely delicate. And it is more than probable that this Powder, by taking off the Acrimony, will prevent Pitting in the Small Pox, Price 2s. 6d.

TO be sold, in different Lots, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before Thomas Bennett, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his House in Curator's Street in Chancery-Lane, London, A Freehold Estate at Barton Hundred, near Bristol; a House in Bristol; a Farm called Cliff-Houses in the County of Devon; and the Manor of Clapton, and several Farms in Clapton and Portbury in the County of Somerset, late the Estate of Thomas Edwards, Esq; deceased.
