

ling, met at Stirling this Sixteenth Day of June,
One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three Years.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen of Stirling-Shyre, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and to join with our Fellow Britons in their Congratulations on that Peace, which, under your Majesty's auspicious Government, has given us the surest Prefage of a happy and lasting Tranquillity.

The Allwise Disposer of Events seems to have called your Majesty to the glorious Task of restoring Peace to Europe, humbling the natural Foes of our envied Liberty, and extending the British Rule over Nations hitherto unknown, as a temporary Reward of those eminent Virtues, so conspicuous in every Part of our beloved Sovereign's Deportment, whether in private or publick Life.

Though we have found Words to express some small Part of the Joy we feel in the many signal Blessings we taste of under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, yet we are truly at a Loss to express our Horror of, and Indignation against, those Sons of Faction and Sedition, who take Pleasure in endeavouring to blast the opening Fruits of your Majesty's wise and gracious Administration; and have even dared to insult our our beloved Sovereign, whose Person, Crown and Dignity, as he continues to act as the true Father of his Country, we are bound and most willing to defend, at the utmost Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, and every Thing that is dear to us, as Men, as Christians, and as Subjects of a King, who deservedly reigns in the Hearts of His People.

Secure of the Affections of a loyal and dutiful Nation, we trust, that the Splendor of your Majesty's Regal Virtues will quickly dissipate those baleful Clouds, raised by wicked and profligate Men; while we, though far remote from the Seat of Government, shall never cease to pray, that your Majesty may long, very long, reign over a happy, united, and flourishing Kingdom.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, and in our Presence, by Dunmore.

The following Address of the States of the Island of Jersey, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's ancient and ever faithful Subjects, the States of your Majesty's Island of Jersey, beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty upon the Conclusion of a Seasonable, Safe, and Honourable Peace, accomplished with such Moderation and Humanity, as bespeaks your Majesty's Paternal Regard to your People, and gives the strongest Hopes, that the Blessings will be fully manifested by its happy Effects, and long Duration.

Permit us (who from our Situation have been more particularly exposed) to express our warmest Gratitude to your Majesty for the gracious Attention shewn to our Security, during the Course of the late bloody and expensive, but Glorious and Successful War.

Your dutiful Subjects of this Island truly rejoice to see your Majesty's Steadiness, and Magnanimity, in Support of the just Rights of your People, crowned with the desired Success.

That your Majesty may continue long to reign the Guardian of the Happiness of a free, brave, and obedient People, and be blessed in every publick and private Relation, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and ever loyal Subjects.

Island of Jersey, June 25, 1763.

Petersburgh, June 17. Baron Osten, the new Minister from Denmark, arrived here last Night.

Dresden, July 4. The King is set out for the Baths of Teplitz early this Morning, accompanied by the Princes Xavier and Albert; Prince Charles will follow in a few Days, being at present confined to his Chamber by a slight Hurt of his Foot.

Ratisbon, July 7. Letters from Vienna bring an Account of an Earthquake, which happened on the 28th past in Hungary, and almost destroyed the Town of Comorre.

Leicester House, July 12.

This Day Count d'Einfiedel, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Prussia, had a Private Audience of her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales.

And afterwards of her Royal Highness Princess Augusta.

To which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Bedford, July 13, 1763.

Notice is hereby given by His Majesty's Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants of this County, at their General Meeting this Day held at the Swan Inn in the Town of Bedford, that the Militia Forces raised in and for the said County of Bedford, are to assemble in the said Town of Bedford, on Monday the 19th Day of September next, 1763, and are to continue embodied until Monday the 17th Day of October following, during which Time they are to be trained and exercised according to the Directions of the Act of Parliament now in Force relating to the Raising and Training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England.

BEDFORD, Lieutenant.

Phil. Monoux.

Robt. H. Ongley.

Marthe Dickinson.

Rich. Orlebas.

John Cater.

Ja. Smyth.

St. James's, July 12, 1763.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That some Person or Persons, unknown, did, in the Night-time, between the Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth Days of June last, at the Parish of the Holy Trinity in the County of the City of Exeter, in a Rack-Field there, called Fryerhayes, wilfully and maliciously cut Five Serges called Half Quarters, of the Value of Eight Pounds, the Property of Ann Moor, of the Parish of the Holy Trinity in the said County of the City of Exeter, Fuller, then and there being on the Racks; and that some Person or Persons, unknown, did, also, in the Night-time, between the Second and Third Days of this Instant July, at the Parish aforesaid, and in the Rack-Field aforesaid, wilfully and maliciously cut Eight other Serges called Pieces and Half, of the Value of Twelve Pounds, the Property also of the said Ann Moor, then, and there, being on the said Racks; and also Four other Serges, likewise called Pieces and Half, of the Value of Six Pounds, then, and there, being on the Racks, the Property of Abraham Kennaway of the same Parish, Fuller; and that all the Serges so cut as aforesaid were thereby greatly injured, and so as not to be worth One Third Part of the Original Value: His Majesty, for the better Discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Committing the said Crimes, or either of them, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person who actually cut the said Serges) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Ann Moor and Abraham Kennaway, do hereby, promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as above excepted) to be paid by them, upon the Conviction of any One, or more, of the Offenders.

Ann Moor.

Abm. Kennaway.