The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Cuelday August 16, to Saturday August 20, 1763.

St. James's, August 20.

HE following Address of the Noblemen,
Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Kincardine, having been transmitted by the Lord Viscount Arbuthnott to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has,
by his Lordship, been presented to His Majesty:
Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Frecholders of the County of Kincardine.

E your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Kincardine, beg Leave to present to your Majesty, this our humble Address upon the late great Event, by which your Majesty hath not only relieved your own Subjects from the grevious Burden of a most bloody and expensive War, but may be said, with greater Propriety than any other King of whom we read in History, to have given Peace to the whole Earth.

It is with the greatest Indignation and Abhorrence, that we see this so great and so general a Blessing, by the Arts of Faction, made the Pretence of an Oppolition to the Government of our most gracious Sovereign, by whose Wisdom and Moderation it was procured; and this Opposition brought Home even to the Throne itself, with a Petulance and Virulence of which the most factious Times hardly furnish an Example: We can with great Confidence affire your Majesty, that those most unbecoming Resections, which have been thrown out by ill defigning Men, will only tend to strengthen and confirm our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, being persuaded that such Men, to accomplish their own private Ends would not hesitate to bring about the greatest national Mischief, even the dividing the Two Kingdoms united by the most folemn Treaty, and by every Bond of mutual In-

May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous, over a free and united People, extreamly happy in the best of Sovereigns.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appoinment, Stonbaven, Aug. 11 1763. Arbuthnott, Preses.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders and others of the County of Banff, having been transmitted by Lord Viscount Macduff, their Representative in Parliament, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordship, been presented to His Majesty:

Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemens Freeholders, and others of the County of Banff.

Throne; and to express the fervent, unfeigned, and grateful Sense we have of your Majesty's great Benevolence, in so seasonably concluding a Peace, upon Terms fully adequate to the Successes of the British Arms; which we hope will be as permanent as it is honourable.

We cannot omit this Occasion, of expressing our Abhorrence of all Attempts to lessen the Affection and Gratitude of your Subjects, assuring your Majesty of our zealous Endeavours, in our several Stations to support your Majesty's Authority, and the Dignity of your Crown.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign honoured and beloved by your Subjects, and see the Advantages of the Peace extended through every Part of your Dominions, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most duriful and loyal Subjects.
Signed in the Name, and by Appointment, of the Meeting, by Banff, Aug. 2, 1763.
Macduff.

Dresden, August 7. The 3d of this Month being the Anniversary of his Polish Majesty's Name Day, he was pleased to give the Order of the White Eagle of Poland to Count Charles de Bruhl, Second Son of his Excellency Count de Bruhl, to Count Poninski, to the Bishop of Smolensko, M. de Hoven, Chancellor of Courland, and to another Gentleman.

This Day the Assembly of the States was opened with the usual Ceremony of the King's receiving the Deputies and Members, sitting on his Throne; when Count Rex, as First Minister of the Conference, made them a most pathetic and elegant Speech; after which the Propositions from the Court to the Diet were read. The Office of Marshal is filled, during the Minority of the Hereditary Marshal Count Loeser, by M. de Hopegarden, who has acquired universal Approbation by the Answer he made, in the Name of the States, full of Respect to the King, and promises to comply with the Demands of the Court in as ample a Manner as the present distressed Condition of the Country will permit.

Hamburgh, August 9. Mr. Woodford, His Britannick Majesty's Resident with the Hanse Towns, arrived here the 2d Instant, and has since received a Deputation from the Senate of this City, after he had made them the usual Notification of his Arrival.

Dublin