

His Royal Highness the Prince of Brazil is happily delivered of a Prince about half an hour after seven o'clock this forenoon. His Royal Highness and the Infante are both well, and as expected. This joyful Event was immediately notified to the Publick in the usual way, and publick Illuminations are appointed through out the City for three Nights successively.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, October 10, 1763.

Order for the Court's going out of Mourning, on Sunday next the 16th Instant, for his late Serene Highness Francis Lewis Ernest of Saxe-Gotha.

Whitehall, October 8, 1763.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That lately there have been several Tumults and Riots of the Journeymen Silk Weavers in the Parishes of St. Matthew Berbnal Green, Christ Church Spittal Fields, and St. Leonard Shoreditch in the County of Middlesex; That, in particular, on Monday and Tuesday the 3d and 4th of October Instant, several of the said Journeymen, and a great Number of other evil-minded Persons, masked and disguised, and armed with Cutlasses and other dangerous Weapons, assembled at different Hours of the Day, and also in the Night-time, about the Houses of several other Journeymen Silk Weavers, who were at Work in Manufaturing certain Silks, and in a most outrageous and riotous Manner, brake open the said Houses, and cut and destroyed the Silk Works in the Looms, to the Value of several Hundred Pounds, and also maimed, disabled and wounded several of the said Journeymen, and threatened the Lives of them and their Families, and broke and destroyed all their Furniture and Goods; and that, on Warrants being issued by the Justices of the Peace to apprehend the Offenders, a certain anonymous Letter was, about Six o'Clock in the Evening of the 5th Instant, put under the Door of one of the said Journeymen whose Works had been destroyed, in the Words following, viz. "You Stevens if you don't make you Wife discharge the Warrants your House shall be pulled down and you all Murdered and Dead peple."

And also that several of the said Journeymen and evil-minded Persons continue to assemble at certain Publick Houses and Places in the said Parishes, and suddenly fall out, armed and disguised in Manner before mentioned, and violently and outrageously break into the said Houses where the said Silk Manufactory is carrying on, and cut and destroy the Works in the Looms in a very short Time, and then disperse before proper Assistance can be had to apprehend them; and further, that the said Journeymen have, for certain illegal Purposes, threatened to destroy the whole Silk Manufactory in those Parts. His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said outrageous and dangerous Riots in the Breaking into the said Houses, so armed and disguised as aforesaid, and Cutting and Destroying the said Silk works, and Maiming, disabling and Wounding the said Persons, and Breaking and Destroying their Furniture and Goods in the Manner aforesaid, and also the Persons concerned in Writing the said Anonymous Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, except the Person and Persons who actually did cut and destroy the said Works, and maim and wound the said Journeymen, and destroy their Furniture, and wrote the said Anonymous Letter, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SANDWICH.

And as a further Encouragement for bringing the said Offenders to Justice, the Master Silk Weavers do hereby offer a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by Mess. Lucas and Ogle, of the Middle Temple, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders. Lucas and Ogle.

St. James's, October 8, 1763.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, on Tuesday, the Fourth Day of this Instant, between the Hours of One and Two o'Clock in the Morning, the House of Miss Hamersleys, upon the Park Hill, in New Windsor, was broken into by some Person or Persons unknown; that a Maid came into the Room where the said Miss Hamersleys lay, and demanded their Money, and took from her new Pocket, in which their Money and Jewels were; that their said Pocket were a pair of Swords found in the Park, with their Keys and other Things, but, that their Money, and a Shagreen Case of Instruments, were gone; and that the said Person or Persons had murdered Mary Holland, the Maid-Servant of the said House, in her Room, by tying a small Linc, like a Jack Linc, twice round her Neck very tight, which choked her: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, as also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds Sterling, to any One of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward of One Hundred Pounds Sterling, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as above excepted) upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Criminals. DUNK HALIFAX.

HUNTINGDONSHIRE.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Second Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intitled, "An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the several Laws now in Being relating to the Raising and Training the Militia within that Part of Great Britain called England," Notice is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the said County of Huntingdon, will be held at the George Inn in the Town of Huntingdon, on Tuesday the 25th Day of this Instant October, being the last Tuesday in the said Month, for the due Execution of the said Act.

By Order of His Majesty's Lieutenant, Wm Stephenfon, Clerk of the General Meeting.

By the Commissioners for taking Care of Sick and Hurt Seamen.

Whereas during the Course of the late War, various Sums of Money were paid by this Board upon Imprest, to divers Persons on Account of the Service of Sick and Wounded Seamen, Prisoners of War and Neutral French brought from America; All such of the said Persons, as have not yet delivered into this Office Accounts and Vouchers to clear the same, are hereby required to do it without Loss of Time, that they may be examined, and Bills thereupon made out, to enable them to take up the Imprest Bills, which are at present standing out against them, as they are liable for the Amount thereof till that is done; and in Case of any of the Parties failing to do what is required, the Imprest Bills will be returned into the Exchequer, and Prosecutions commenced against them for the Sums unaccounted for: And it is earnestly recommended to these Persons, who have already received Bills here, to clear their Imprests to carry the same to the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy in Broad-street, that their Imprest Bills may be returned to them.

Dated at the Sick and Hurt Office, this 8th Day of October, 1763.

Navy-Office, October 5, 1763.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, That on Wednesday the 12th Instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as are willing to supply His Majesty's Yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, Sheerness, Portsmouth, Deal and Harwich, with Seamen's Beds on a standing Contract, that they may attend with their Proposals at that Time.
