

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 22, to Tuesday October 25, 1763.

St. James's, October 25.

THIS Day being the Anniversary of the King's Accession to the Throne, there was a numerous and brilliant Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment His Majesty on that Occasion. At Noon the Guns in the Park, and at the Tower, were fired; and in the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and other Publick Demonstrations of Joy, throughout London and Westminster.

St. James's, October 23.

This Day his Excellency the Count de Guerchy, Ambassador in Ordinary from France;

And the Count de la Marmora, Envoy Extraordinary from Sardinia, had Private Audiences of Her Majesty.

To which they were introduced by the Right Hon. Lord Viscount Cantalupe, Her Majesty's Vice-Chamberlain, and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Matter of the Ceremonies.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, October 25, 1763.

Orders for the Court's going into Mourning on Sunday next, the 30th Instant; for the late King of Poland, viz.

The Ladies to wear black Silk or Velvet, fringed or plain Linnen, black or white Fans, and white Gloves.

The Men to wear Black full trimmed, fringed or plain Linnen, black Swords and Buckles.

St. James's, October 8, 1763.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, on Tuesday, the Fourth Day of this Instant, between the Hours of One and Two o'Clock in the Morning, the House of Miss Hamersleys, upon the Park Hill, in New Windsor, was broke into by some Person or Persons unknown; that a Man came into the Room where the said Miss Hamersleys lay, and demanded their Money, and took from them their Pockets, in which their Money and Keys were; that their said Pockets were afterwards found in Windsor Little Park, with their Keys and other Things, but, that their Money, and a Shagreen Case of Instruments, were gone; and that the said Person or Persons had murdered Mary Holland, the Maid-Servant of the said House, in her Room, by tying a small Line, like a Jack Line, twice round her Neck very tight, which choked her: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery and Murder, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, as also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds Sterling, to any One of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the said Reward of One Hundred Pounds Sterling, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as above excepted) upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Criminals.
