General Post-Office.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the Chester Mail of last Night from this Office, was this Morning, between the Hours of Three and Four o'Clock, attacked and robbed near the Six-Mile-Stone on Kinebley Common, by Two Footpads, who opened and took out of the said Mail, the following Bags of Letters, viz.

Barnet,	Stony Stratford,
St. Alban's,	Amphill,
Dunstable,	Bedford,
Fenny Stratford,	Ashburne,
Luton,	Leicester,
Daventry,	Derby,
Towcester,	Nottingham,
Northampton,	Mansfield,
Harborough,	Chesterfield,
Loughborough,	Sheffield,
Lutterworth,	and
Rugby,	Rotherham;

And took out of the Irish Mail, containing all the charged Letters, and some Bundles of Franks.

The Persons who committed this Robbery are described to be, one of them rather a tall Man, dressed in a light-colored Russian Frock, a black or dark-brown Wig, and a black Hat, and pitted with the Small Pox; the other, rather a short Man, dressed in a Sailor's Jacket, with a great Number of small Buttons, and a Cap upon his Head, and a checked Shirt on.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, both or either of the Persons who committed this Robbery, shall be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby both or either of the Persons who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers, will, upon the Conviction of both or either of the Parties, be entitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and will also have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

General Post-Office, November 5, 1763.

Public Notice is hereby given, That besides the Mail which will be made up at this Office upon the Second Saturday of this, and every Month, as usual, for New York, an Extraordinary Mail will be dispatched, from hence, upon Saturday the 26th Instant; there being already Two Packet-Boats at Falmouth, and others expected, in sufficient Time to carry the December Mail.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

By the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy.

Whereas divers Persons have had Sums of Money impressed to them by us, and others have drawn Bills of Exchange, which have been paid, and charged as Imprests against them; These are to give Notice to all Persons, who have had any Money impressed to them from this Office, or drawn Bills, and have not delivered in their Accounts and Vouchers to be examined and passed to clear the same, that they do forthwith deliver them into this Office, in order to pass their Accounts, and thereby clear the Imprests standing out against them, and prevent their being returned into the Exchequer, and prosecuted, as otherwise they will be; and such Persons as have passed their Accounts, are exhorted to carry their perfect Bills to the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy, and take up their Imprests. Dated at the Victualling Office, London, this 19th of September, 1763.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of His Majesty's Ships Lyon and Bluff, who were actually on Board at Taking the St. Joseph, a French Prize, on the 31st of August, 1762; That they will be paid their respective Shares thereof at the King's Arms Tower Hill, on Saturday the 3d of December, 1763; and the Shares remaining unpaid, will be recalled, at the said Place, the first Thursday in every Month for Three Years to come.
