His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing and Sending the said anonymous threatening Letter to the said Mr. Allin, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his, or her Accomplice, or Accomplices, in the said Fact, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Navy Board do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Guineas to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as above excepted) on the Conviction of any one, or more, of the Offenders.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the said Mr. Allin doth hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas to the Person making such Discovery, upon Conviction as aforesaid.

Edward Allin.

St. James's, February 28, 1764.

Whereas it has been represented to the King, that on Wednesday the 15th Day of this Instant February, Mathew Delohanty, an Irish Chairman, and several other wicked and ill-disposed Persons, riotously assembled before the House of his Excellency the Morocco Ambassador, in Pantion Square, Piccadilly, and most audaciously broke open the Outer Door of the said House, and forcibly entered the same, and were guilty of great Outrages therein, in Violation of the Rights and Privileges of Ambassadors, and in open Defiance of His Majesty and His Laws; for which Offences, a Bill of Indictment has been since found by the Grand Jury of the County of Middlesex, against the said Mathew Delohanty, and Five of his Accomplices, who have been apprehended, and are now in Custody; but the said Mathew Delohanty, and some other of the Offenders, abscond, and are fled from Justice: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice, the Persons concerned in the said audacious Riot and Violence, is hereby pleased to offer a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to such Person or Persons, who shall apprehend the said Mathew Delohanty, and bring him before any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, so that he may be proceeded against and brought to Justice, and a suitable Reward to any Person or Persons, who shall in like Manner apprehend any other of the Offenders not yet taken, to be paid by Philip Carteret Webb, Esq; Solicitor to His Majesty's Treasury: And if any one of the said Offenders now at large, except the said Mathew Delohanty, will surrender himself, and give Information against any other of the Offenders now at large, so that he or they may be apprehended, he or they shall receive all fitting Encouragement.

DUNK HALIFAX.

N. B. Mathew Delohanty is described to be near Six Feet high, about Twenty-eight Years of Age, of a pale Complexion, and wears his own Hair, which is of a light brown, short and curling.

Whitehall, November 21, 1763.

The Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations having received Information, that many Persons are desirous of Grants of Land in His Majesty's Provinces of East Florida and West Florida in America, in Order to the Cultivation of the same for the raising of Silk, Cotton, Wine, Oyl, Indigo, Cocchineal, and other Commodities to which the said Lands are adapted: Their Lordships therefore, to avoid any Delay in the making of such Settlements, do, by His Majesty's Command, give public Notice, that His Majesty has been pleased to direct, that the Lands in His Majesty's said Provinces of East Florida and West Florida shall be surveyed and laid out into Townships, not exceeding Twenty Thousand Acres each, for the Convenience and Accommodation of Settlers; and that these Townships, or any Proportions thereof, will be granted, upon the same moderate Conditions of Quit-Rent and Cultivation as are required in other Colonies, to such Persons as shall be willing to enter into reasonable Engagements to settle the Lands, within a limited Time, and at their own Expence, with a proper Number of useful and industrious Protestant Inhabitants, either from His Majesty's other Colonies, or from Foreign Parts; and all Persons, who may be willing to obtain such Grants, are desired to send their Proposals in Writing to John Pownall, Esq; Secretary to the said Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

By Order of their Lordships,

J. Pownall, Secretary.

Custom-house, London, February 9, 1764.

Whereas on Friday the 3d of this Instant February, a large Gang of Smuglers, to the Number of fourteen or thereabouts, armed with Fire-Arms, or other offensive Weapons, were assembled at or near a Place called Hurst-Beach in the County of Southampton, in order to be aiding and assisting in the Running, Landing, and Carrying away a large Quantity of Uncustomed Goods: And whereas William Dale, Riding Officer of the Customs at Kayhaven in the said County of Southampton, was, in the due Execution of his Office, in endeavouring to seize Part of the said Goods, forcibly and violently assaulted and obstructed, having received several Blows upon his Head, that his Skull was laid bare for some Width, so that a Concussion of the Brain is much to be feared, and his Life is in the utmost Danger.

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring the Offenders to Justice, and the more effectually to put a Stop to such cruel and outrageous Proceedings, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any or either of the said Offender or Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

Wm. Wood, Secretary.
