

General Post-Office, February 7, 1764.

Whereas the Post-Boy carrying the Mail from York to Malton, was on Sunday Morning last the 5th instant, about One o'Clock, attacked and robbed upon Stockton Common, betwixt York and Malton, about half a Mile before he came to the Lobster House, by a single Highwayman on Horseback, who carried away the Horse on which the Post-boy rode, together with the said Mail and all the Bags and Letters it contained, viz. The Bags and Letters sent from this Office on Thursday Night the 2d Instant for the Towns of Malton, Whitby, Scarborough, Bridlington, and all Places within their respective Deliveries, and also all the Bye-Letters of that Post from different Parts of the Kingdom, for the Towns above-mentioned, and Places in their Neighbourhood.

The Person who committed this Robbery is described to be about five Feet three Inches high, broad-set; had on a light-coloured Surtout Coat, and rode upon a strong little black Horse of the Cart Kind, with a bob Tail.

This is therefore to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed the said Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or, if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Offender, be intitled to the same Reward of Fifty Pounds, and will also have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

Notice is hereby given, that the Officers and Crews who were actually on board His Majesty's Ships Dreadnought, Seaford, Wager, and Port Antonio (in Company with the Peregrine) at the Taking the Dutch Ship Gertruyda, on the 26th of April 1759, may by themselves, or their lawful Attornies, make their Claims for such Prize-money as is due to them for the above Prize, at the House of Francis Baxter, in Bowd's Court Wallbrook, on the 21st of this Instant March, or any Friday or Wednesday after until the 5th of June next, between Ten in the Forenoon and Two in the Afternoon.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Dorsetshire, who were actually on board her the 11th of October, 1761, at Taking the Henry, a French Privateer, that they will be paid their respective Shares of said Privateer and Bounty-money for her, at the King's Arms on Tower Hill, the 17th of March 1764; and that the Shares not then claimed will be recalled the first Monday in every Month, at the Exeter Inn in Plymouth, for Three Years from the Day of first Payment above-mentioned, after the Books are returned to Plymouth.

John Lloyd, of Plymouth Dock, Agent.
