

Room adjoining to the Theatre. The Spectators in the Boxes, and round the Circle, were innumerable. His Royal Highness retired about Three o'Clock in the Morning, and the Ball continued till Seven.

To-morrow Morning his Royal Highness leaves Venice, and proposes stopping a few Days at Padua.

This Morning the Noble Deputies waited upon his Royal Highness to take their Leave. The eldest of them made his Royal Highness a very handsome Compliment, praying his Royal Highness, in the Name of the Senate, to assure His Majesty of their great Happiness in having an Opportunity of testifying their inviolable Attachment to the King and His Royal Family. His Royal Highness in Return assured them, how sensible he was of their great Attention towards him, and that he would make a Report of it to the King.

A Proclamation has been issued for reducing the Quarantine to Twenty eight Days from Cattaro, Castel Nuovo, and Ragusa. The Plague is almost ceased in Dalmatia.
