Genoa, October 20. This Week the Republick has received Advice, that the Succours and Reinforcement sent to the Garrison of San Fiorenza were got safe. Some Corsican Soldiers, and the Officer of the Fort in Erbalonga, having determined to deliver the Fort to the Genoese, a Detachment of the Republick's Troops was sent from Bastia on Board some Vessels to assist them; but the Design of those in the Fort having been discovered, the Male-contents came down from the adjacent Villages, and prevented the Genoese from Landing. The Officer and Soldiers, finding their Design circumvented, began a Parley with the other Male-contents; but whilst the Officer was treating, he was shot; which so disheartened the Soldiers, that they offered to surrender up the Fort on Condition of their Lives being spared; which was promised: But as soon as the Male-contents got Possession of the Fort, they stabbed with Stiletto's every one of the Mutineers.

Vienna, October 24. His Royal Highness Prince Charles of Lorraine arrived here on Thursday in perfect Health; and his Sister Princess Charlotte is expected in a few Days.

The Court went on Monday to Schlofs-Hoff, a Country-Seat of the Emperor's; and will remain there till the End of the Week.

Venice, October 26. The Plague is spread into another Village in the Territory of Knin in Dalmatia:

St. James's, November 13.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Josiah Hardy, Esq; to be His Majesty's Consul at Cadiz and Port St. Mary, in the Dominions of the Catholick King.

Whitehall, November 13.

The King has been pleased to approve of the Sieur Christian Albrecht de Passow to be Consul for the King of Denmark, in all the Ports in that Part of Great Britain called England, and the Islands thereunto belonging, excepting those Districts where there may be already other Danish Consuls regularly nominated and approved.

Dublin, November 6.

Sunday last being the Anniversary of the Birth of the late King William the Third, of Glorious Memory, the Great Guns in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired three Rounds, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks; and Yesterday the same was celebrated in the usual Manner. At Noon there was a very splendid Levee at the Castle; after which their Excellencies the Lords Justices, attended by the Nobility and Gentry, and escorted by a Squadron of Horse, went in Procession round the Statue of King William, and Stephen's Green. By Command of their Excellencies the Play of Terrestrial was performed at the Theatre Royal: And the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and every other Demonstration of Joy.

Dublin, November 6.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of the horrid Gunpowder Plot, the Great Guns at the Salute Battery in His Majesty's Park the Phoenix were fired Three Rounds, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks; and the same was observed with the usual Solemnities.

Admiralty Office, November 9, 1764.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on the 5th Instant, the Success of Plymouth, whereof John Thresher was Master, of the Burthen of about 250 Tons, bound from Newcastle to Plymouth, with Coals, having worked into Yarmouth Roads, and endeavouring to tack, in order to get a clear Berth, missed Stay, and the Wind blowing very strong at West South West, drove with her stern upon a Sand called the Knowle, and beat with great Violence till Eight o'Clock in the Evening, when she began to move, and soon afterwards came off the Sand, but had received so much Damage, that the Master and Crew, for the Preservation of their Lives, hoisted out their Boat, and left the Vessel, which soon afterwards sunk, and with the Cargo is entirely lost.
