

Exchequer Bill Office, March 19, 1765.

The Paymasters of Exchequer Bills give Notice, that the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have directed Exchequer Bills, issued pursuant to an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for raising the Supplies for the Year 1764, and charged on the Aid of the present Year, to be discharged at two several Payments for the greater Convenience of paying off the said Bills. The Principal and Interest on which Bills, from N^o 1, to N^o 6000, inclusive, will be paid off at their Office near the Exchequer, Westminster, on the 23d of this Instant March: And Attendance for that Purpose will be given on that and the succeeding Days, from Ten o'Clock in the Morning till One in the Afternoon, (Sundays and Holydays excepted:) And for the greater Dispatch, the Bearers of the said Bills are desired to bring Lists thereof, containing the Numbers, and Times of Commencement of Interest, with the Principal Sums, and Interest due on such Bills, computed by the Quarters and Days in the Year, to the said 23d Day of March, 1765; on which Day the Interest on the said Exchequer Bills from N^o 1, to N^o 6000, is to cease. And they are desired to write their Names and Places of Abode on such Lists, and endorse their Names on the Backs of the said Bills.

The said Paymasters hereby give further Notice, that the Principal and Interest on the remaining Exchequer Bills, from N^o 6001, to N^o 10,500 will be paid off on the 30th of this Instant March; on which Day the Interest on those last Bills will also cease.

General Excise-Office, London, March 7, 1765.

Whereas many Persons who own, use, have or keep Quantities of Silver Plate chargeable with the Duty granted by an Act of Parliament made in the 29th Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, have neglected to renew their Notices, and to make true Entries in Writing of the Number of Ounces of such Plate, and to pay the Duty due for the same, according to the Directions of the said Act, although Application hath been made to them for that Purpose by the Directions of the Commissioners of Excise: These are therefore to give Notice, that if they do not comply with the Directions of the said Act, and pay the Duties due for their Plate, at the proper Offices appointed to receive the same, forthwith, the said Commissioners will think themselves obliged, without further Notice, to order Bills to be filed against them in the Court of Exchequer, to enforce the Payment of the said Duties.

Likewise Notice is hereby given to all Persons who own, use, have or keep Silver Plate chargeable with the said Duty, and who have never made any Entry for the same, that they are liable to be prosecuted for their Neglect thereof.

Office of Ordnance, Tower of London,
March 15, 1765.

The Lieutenant General and the Rest of the Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give Notice to all such Persons as are willing to supply this Office at the Tower, Greenwich and Woolwich, with Tunfield Moor or Pentop Coals, as they may be wanted from the 1st of April next to the 31st of March 1766, that they may deliver their Proposals in Writing, sealed up, at the Office of Ordnance in the Tower, and attend themselves on Friday next the 22d Instant, at the Office of Ordnance in Old Palace Yard, Westminster, at Twelve o'Clock, when the same shall be taken into Consideration.

By Order of the Board,

John Boddington.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Falkland, who were actually on Board at the Taking the Resource on the 11th of April, 1762. That they will be paid their respective Shares of the Produce of Gunpowder taken in the said Prize, at the King's Arms on Tower Hill, on Thursday the 4th of April, 1765; and the Shares remaining unpaid will be recalled at the same Place the Second Thursday in every Month for Three Years to come.
