East-India House, June 15, 1765.

THE East-India Company, by their Ship Devonshire arrived Yesterday off Dover, have received Advices from the President and Council in Bengal, dated the 26th of November last, That the Troops under the Command of Major Munro, having advanced towards the Army commanded by the King Shah Aulum, (late Shah Zadah) and Sujah Dowlah, Nabob of Owde, who waited with their whole Force, and a Number of Artillery, at Buxar, about 100 Miles beyond Patna, the Armies came to a general Engagement on the 23d of October, and the English Troops gained the most compleat Victory possible. The Enemy fled across the Carumnassa with the utmost Precipitation, leaving their whole Camp standing, and about 150 Pieces of Cannon.

Whitehall, June 18, 1765.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, in the Night of Saturday the 25th Day of May last, the Pales of the Paddock of the Right Honourable Lord Winterton, at Shillinglee in the County of Suffex, were broke down, and two Braces and a half of fat Bucks killed, and feloniously taken away, and another wounded and left behind: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned therein, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SANDWICH.

And as a farther Encouragement, the said Lord Winterton does hereby promise a Reward of Thirty Guineas to any Person who will make such Discovery either to himself, or to Sir John Fielding, as may be the Means of apprehending one or more of the Offenders, to be paid upon his, her, or their Conviction.

Winterton.

St. James's, June 7, 1765.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That the Dwelling-house of the Right Honourable the Countess Dowager of Effingham, situated in George Street, Hanover-Square, was, on the 18th of May last past, in the Night-time, robbed of a large Sum of Money, and other Things of Value, her Ladyship's Property; and at the same Time, as there is much Reason to believe, wilfully and maliciously set on Fire, with a View the said Robbery might be the better concealed, whereby her Ladyship's Life was exposed to the most imminent Danger; and that one Thomas Holland, Butler to her Ladyship, is now in Custody for the above Offences, who, from the Nature and Circumstances of them, it is judged may have had Accomplices in the Committing of the same: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said daring Robbery and Arson, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them (except the Person principally concerned in the said horrid Crimes) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Right Honourable the Countess Dowager of Effingham, does, hereby, promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted) to be paid, by her Ladyship, upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders.

A. Effingham.

General Post-Office, June 8, 1765.

PUBLICK Notice is hereby given, That by an Act passed the last Session of Parliament, "For altering certain Rates of Postage, and for amending, explaining, and enlarging several Provisions in the Act of the Ninth of Queen Anne, and other Acts relating to the Post-Office;" It is, amongst other Things, Enacted,
