AT the Court at St. James's, the 6th Day of September, 1765,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Thomas Pelham, Esq; Comptroller of His Majesty's Household, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Florence, August 17. Many Edicts have been published with regard to the Regulation of this Town; by one, all miserable Objects of Beggars are prohibited to be exposed in the Streets, and a Maintenance is provided for them in an Hospital: By another, all Coffee-houses, and public Places of Resort, are to be shut at One o'Clock in the Morning.

Florence, August 24. By Letters from Rome we have Notice, that on Monday last the Pope was seized with a Fit, which totally deprived him, for many Hours, of his Senses; but, by three copious Emissions of Blood, he recovered them so as to receive all the Sacraments of the Church with the greatest Resignation and Tranquility of Mind; but tho', at the Departure of the Courier that Evening, he continued in that Situation, and had not had any Return of his Fits, nevertheless he was supposed to be in the most imminent Danger.

The Marchioness Riccardi and Madame Antinori, who were lately appointed Ladies of Honor to the Arch-dutchess, set out this Morning for Bolsano, to attend that Princess from thence, in Consequence of an Order which they received last Week for that Purpose.

St. Ildephonso, August 19. His Catholic Majesty has received the News of the Princess of Parma's being landed at Carthagena the 11th; and she will be here the 25th. The Marriage will be performed the same Day; and in a Day or two afterwards the Marquis de Santa Cruz, a Grandee of Spain of the First Class, and Gentleman of the Bed-Chamber to the Prince of Asturias, will be sent to Paris to notify the Marriage.

Venice, August 23. A Tripoline Corfair lately took a small Neapolitan Vessel in the Adriatick. But a Venetian Man of War falling in with him, when he had the Neapolitan in Tow, retook the Vessel and restored her to the Neapolitans, forced the Tripoline into an Harbour, where he detained him till he was assured to what Nation he belonged, and then dismissed him, upon a Promise to leave those Seas. The French Ambassador set out for Parma with all his Family the 13th Instant.

Turin, August 24. The Courier dispatched to Madrid from the Court of Parma being returned, the Duke of Parma received, on the 9th Instant, the Oath of Allegiance and Fidelity of all his People, and took the Reins of Government, declaring himself come to a State of Majority.

Hague, September 3. The Hereditary Prince and Princess of Brunswick arrived in perfect Health, on Saturday Evening, at the House in the Wood, near this Town, where the Prince of Orange received them; and their Royal and Serene Highness have continued to lodge there. The Duke of York arrived early on Sunday Morning from Germany, but preferred to lodge in Town, as he had done when his Royal Highness was here before.

The Hereditary Prince and Princess set out this Evening for Helvoetsluys, where they go by Water, in the Prince of Orange's Yacht: The Duke of York by Land To-morrow Morning; and his Excellency Sir Joseph Yorke attends them to the Place of their Embarkation.

St. James's, September 7.

By a Letter from Dunkirk received Yesterday, we learn, that the Demolition of the Jettees of the Channel of Dunkirk was begun the 2d Instant.

St. James's, September 7.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint his Grace Thomas Hoiles Duke of Newcastle to be Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Nottingham, and of the Town of Nottingham and County of the same Town.

The King has been pleased to grant unto his Grace Thomas Hoiles Duke of Newcastle the Office of Steward, Keeper and Guardian of His Majesty's Forest of Sherwood and Park of Tolewood, in the County of Nottingham.

Admiralty Office, September 4, 1765.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty Sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on the 31st of last Month, the Snow General Burton, of London, Moses Kennedy, Master, bound from Jamaica to Hull, laden with Rum, Mahogany, and other Goods, was drove on Shore and wrecked within the Port of Plymouth, and Part of her Cargo lost.
