

passed in the Thirty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second) hereby Prohibit the Making, Extracting, or Distilling, of any Kind of Low Wines, or Spirits, from any Wheat, Wheat Meal, Wheat Flour, or Wheat Bran, or any Mixture therewith, from the Date hereof until the Fourteenth Day of November next: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and yield due Obedience to His Majesty's Commands hereby signified.

W. Blair.

St. James's, October 4.

The following Address of the Governor and Company of the English Colony of Connecticut in New England in America, has been presented to the King by the Earl of Sheburne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Governor and Company of the English Colony of Connecticut in New England in America.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Governor and Company of your Majesty's English Colony of Connecticut in New England in America, inspired with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Obedience to your gracious Majesty, beg Leave with Humility to approach your Royal Presence, with our unanimous Acknowledgments of the innumerable Benefits we enjoy under your most auspicious Reign; and particularly to return our grateful Tribute of humble and hearty Thanks to your Majesty, for giving your Royal Assent to an Act for repealing a late Act of the Parliament of Great-Britain, for granting and applying certain Stamp Duties in the Colonies and Plantations in America: An Act which had filled your faithful Subjects in these Colonies with the deepest Concern.

Your Majesty's Wisdom and Clemency, so signally displayed on this interesting Occasion, hath happily restored Tranquility, filled our Hearts with Joy and Gladness, and diffused universal Felicity throughout all your Majesty's American Dominions; has inexpressibly endeared your sacred Person to your loyal and dutiful Subjects in this Colony, confirmed our Confidence in the Justice and Goodness of the August Legislature of Great Britain, and filled us with the most cordial and respectful Gratitude and Affection to our Mother Country.

Our Subjection to your Majesty's Government, and Connexion with Great Britain, we have always esteemed the Safety and Happiness of this Country; and we rejoice in the rising Prospect, that under your Majesty's wife, mild, and auspicious Reign, a permanent and harmonious Intercourse, mutually beneficial and advantageous, may be established between Great Britain and her Colonies, whereby the Interest of both Countries (on which the Glory, Safety, and Happiness of the whole Empire so much depends) will be greatly promoted.

A steady unshaken Loyalty, Fidelity, and warm Devotion to your Majesty, and your Royal Progenitors of the illustrious House of Hanover, have ever been the Boast of this Colony; and, under their auspicious Protection, we have enjoyed those Rights and Liberties, which, from small Beginnings, have, under God, been the Means of rendering this Colony a valuable Part of your Majesty's Dominions. These, and other signal Favours and Blessings enjoyed by us under your Majesty's wife and righteous Government, and especially the Condescension of our most gracious King on the late important Occasion, demand from us the most sincere Thankfulness and Praise to God, the Supreme Author of all Good, and Disposer of all Events, as well as the liveliest Sentiments of Gratitude and Loyalty to your Majesty.

With Minds impressed with the deepest Sense of your Majesty's eminent Wisdom and Goodness; of the Abilities and Patriot Spirit of your Ministers; and the Magnanimity, Prudence, and Equity of those who compose the British Legislature; and animated by the happy Prospect, that the Trade of America in particular, as well as the British Commerce in general, may be established upon the most solid Foundation and extensive Plan of Utility; we shall steadily pursue such Measures as shall most effectually tend to support the Dignity of your Majesty's Government in this Colony, and contribute to the general Emolument and Glory of the British Empire.

Sensible of the great Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty's most wise and equitable Government, and encouraged by the many gracious Assurances and convincing Proofs given by your Majesty, of your kind and benevolent Attention to all your faithful Subjects, even the most remote; permit us, most gracious Sovereign, to recommend your Colony of Connecticut to your Paternal Care and kind Protection.

May your Majesty, with increasing Felicity and Glory, continue to a far distant Period, to fill and adorn the Throne of your illustrious Ancestors; and your Royal Progeny, in our Succession, reign over a free, grateful, and happy People, in Europe and America, with Dignity and Renown to the latest Ages.

We are, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and obedient Subjects, The Governor and Company of the Colony of Connecticut.

St. Idelfonso, September 15. Advices are just received by the American Packet of a great Earthquake in the Isle of Cuba, which has overturned and dismantled the City of St. Jago, in which very happily not above Forty Lives were lost: But it was scarcely felt at the Havannah.

Copenhagen, September 23. Count Horn, the Swedish Ambassador, arrived here on the 16th Instant, accompanied by Nine Cavaliers d'Ambassade. He notified his Arrival to the Foreign Ministers on the 18th, and Yesterday had his first Audience of the King and the Royal Family, who removed to Copenhagen for this Purpose; where they are to remain till the Departure of the Princess Royal.