

in His Privy Council, pursuant to the Act of Parliament of the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, in that Case made and provided—His Majesty doth, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, by this His Order in His Privy Council, Require and Command, that the said John Scott, George Richardson, John Richardson, John Richardson, John Carruthers, George Well, William Glover, John Tinnian, George Carruthers, Thomas Wyllie otherwise Wyley, John Burrell, Robert Law, James Dixon, commonly called Bailiff, William Gass, George Rome, James Potter, James Potter, John Walker, and Thomas Storey, and each of them, do surrender himself and themselves within the Space of Forty Days after the first Publication of this Order in the London Gazette, to the Lord Chief Justice, or one other of His Majesty's Justices of the Court of King's Bench, or to one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace.

Robert Walpole.

St. James's, October 18.

The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, having been transmitted by Mr. Powell, Deputy-Recorder of the said City, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Conway, has, by him, been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our most respectful Congratulations to your Majesty, on the safe Delivery of your Royal Consort, and the further Increase of your illustrious Family, by the Birth of the Princess Royal.—When Providence rewards your Majesty for the Blessings you bestow, by adding to your domestic Felicity, your grateful Subjects cannot but feel the most pleasing Satisfaction.

The Marriage of your Majesty's Sister, the Princess Caroline Matilda, to the King of Denmark, is an additional Circumstance of Joy; and we embrace this Opportunity of expressing our Sense of your Majesty's Prudence and Wisdom, in accomplishing an Alliance which supports and strengthens the Protestant Interest.

Accept, Royal Sire, our most dutiful Returns of Gratitude, for your Majesty's seasonable Interposition of the Prerogative to alleviate the Public Distress. And here, Sire, we are at a Loss which most to admire, your Majesty's paternal Care in relieving the Necessities of your People, or your tender Regard to the Constitution, in your gracious Manner of effecting it: So happily has your Majesty blended them, that on this, as on other Occasions, you make the Parent and the Patriot add true Dignity to the Prince.

Sealed with the Common Seal of the Corporation the 16th Day of October 1766.

The following Address of the Council and Representatives of the Province of Nova Scotia, has been presented to the King by the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The most humble Address of the Council and Representatives of the Province of Nova Scotia.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and Representatives of your Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia, met in general Assembly, being truly sensible of your Majesty's Royal Regard and Paternal Attention to the Happiness and Welfare of your People, and conceiving just and due Sentiments of the Lenity and Moderation of the Parliament, most humbly offer our most dutiful Thanks and Acknowledgements for the Repeal of the Act for granting certain Stamp Duties in America.

So much Grace and Condescension so remarkably manifested by your Majesty and the Parliament, not only lay us under the highest Obligations to continue in a due and cheerful Obedience to the Laws and Legislative Authority of Great-Britain, but also require the utmost Exertion of our Abilities, in Testimony of our most humble and respectful Gratitude, to contribute our Proportion, by the most zealous Effort, to the Happiness and Welfare of your Majesty and your Dominions.

Of these unfeigned Sentiments we most humbly intreat your Majesty's gracious Acceptance, trusting that our dutiful Conduct and Deportment shall at all Times abundantly testify the Truth and Sincerity of our Professions.
