St. James's, October 21, 1766.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That Jonathan Gieed (who keeps the Rose Tavern in the Parish of St. Michael at Pleas, in the City of Norwich) did, on Friday the 17th Day of this Instant October, at Twelve o'Clock at Night, after the Company he had had that Evening at his House were gone, upon his going to set up some Tobacco-Dishes on a Shelf in the Passage or Entry of his said House, near the Street Door, where his Tobacco Dishes were usually kept, find, upon a Tobacco-Dish on the said Shelf, which had not been used that Evening, but which stood nearest the Street Door of his said House, an anonymous threatening incendiary Letter, directed, as hereunder, and containing the Words, Letters, and Figures following, viz.

" To
" Jn^o Pattafon,
" Esq;
" in
" Norwich
" Oct. 16, 1766.

" Sir,
" The party wh^m whom I am their Chief and was
" an Eye Witness to your generosity and lenity to
" which chiefly you owe your Protection amidst the " Variety of Passions that have Inflamed the brea^t of
" an Injured and Inraged people they have launched
" frequently upon Incomiums of you and hope you
" will further merit their good Will—the Subsequent
" discours is particularly adapted to you and the Cor" poration which is in brief, as follows,——We
" are a select body which are determined at all Events
" to chastise monopolizers and those particular Gen-
" tleman whose distinguished bravery was Evident
" in defeating a few miserable wretches? the City
" had been of a flame last night, which was Thurf-
" day, but I used all the Eloquence I was Master of
" and got leave to write to you which is the last time
" I can intercede in your behalf the time draw near
" If you have a mind to save the City and yourself
" Immediately on Saturday Morning alter the price
" of moit Eatables for the present—in the interim I'll
" do all I durst to prevail upon them which will be " impossible without such an Alteration—therefore
" for God Sake if you have any regard for your own
" Safety do what is commanded or expect the dire
" Event, as for the poor Soldiers I pity them for by
" God we neither give nor receive Quarter but are de-
" termined to perish by the Sword as death will be a
" deliverance—The land is fertile and bring forth
" well cultivated fruits in due Season but knavery
" on one hand and pollicy on the other have made
" things thus artificially dear but woe to Mr Pool—
" the attack will begin in four different parts and
" those that do not fall by the Sword shall by the " flames—You will be out of danger for you can
" look of this noble Sentence of Horace without any
" check. Hic murus ahenous esto nil concere sibi
" nulla pallefcere culpa."

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing the said anonymous threatening Letter, and in laying or putting the same in the Place above-described, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his, or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Facts, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Magistrates of Norwich do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any Person (except as before excepted) making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Fra. Wright, Clerk of the Peace.
