

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 20, to Tuesday June 23, 1767.

Florence, June 6.

ON Wednesday the 2d Instant a Bark arrived at Leghorn with two Corsican Officers on board from Capraia, with an Account of the Surrender of the Fortrefs of that little Island to the Corsicans on the 28th past, after a Blockade of an Hundred and two Days: The Garrison, which consisted of thirty Soldiers and two or three Officers, had for many Days lived upon a small Portion of Bread and Water; so that they were all much extenuated: They were treated with the greatest Humanity by the Corsican Officers, and were permitted by their Capitulation to go to Genoa. Among the other Things that were found in the Fortrefs, there were four Pieces of Brass Battery Cannon and seven smaller Pieces, with a large Quantity of Bullets, Powder, and other Military Stores. Three Hundred Corsicans have been left in Garrison there: The rest were immediately sent back to Corsica.

Copenhagen, June 9. His Danish Majesty proposes setting out Tomorrow Morning for Holstein. He will reach Skewick on the 15th, Altona the 1st of July, and Trauendahl the 9th, where he will remain till the 20th. His Return hither is fixed for the 29th. All the Members of the Council will accompany him. Her Danish Majesty intends removing to Fredericksburg on Saturday next, where she will remain until the Return of his Majesty.

Vienna, June 10. It is impossible to describe the universal Joy and Satisfaction which is expressed by all Ranks of People at the Assurances now given of the Empress Queen's being out of all Danger. Her Imperial Majesty, who has seen with the greatest Pleasure the general Anxiety for her Safety, has spoke of it in Terms, which shew the Impression it has made; and the Emperor, whose Behaviour upon this, as indeed upon every other Occasion, shews him to be one of the best of Sons, joins very heartily and sincerely in the general Rejoicings on this happy Event.

Hamburgh, June 12. On the 8th Instant her most Serene Highness the Princess of Anhalt-Cöthen was safely brought to Bed of a Princess.

Berlin, June 13. His Prussian Majesty, having finished his Reviews at Korb-litz near Mitleburgh, returned on the 8th to Potzdam.

Brussels, June 19. Yesterday, upon the Arrival of a special Messenger from Vienna, the Cannon upon the Ramparts were fired, and Te Deum sung in the Chapel of the Court, for the Recovery of the Dowager Empress Queen. On Sunday next there will be great Gala at Court; the Mourning to be laid aside for that Day; and his Royal Highness will go in State to hear Te Deum sung in the Cathedral of St. Gedeule.

War-Office, June 23.

1st Regiment of Foot, 2d Battalion, Surgeon Lionel Campbell is appointed to be Surgeon, in the Room of Surgeon John Mac Colme, by Purchase.

Erratum in the last List.

In the 67th Regiment of Foot, for David Hudson, Gent. to be Ensign vice Robert Hudson, read, David Gordon, &c.

Whitehall, June 20, 1767.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That on Thursday last, the following anonymous threatening Letter was received by Thomas Perry, of New Norfolk-Street, in the Parish of St. George Hanover-Square, Gent. directed as hereunder, and containing the Words and Figures following, viz.

“ To Mr. Thomas Perry

“ in Nue Verfiene Street

“ Oxtard Road

“ From a Friend unknown

“ Sir I hope youl Excuse me for sending you these Lines which is to warne you of the Dainger you are in for so oftn promising payment of the Price Money for the Galeone — and not keeping your Word — there is now A great number assembled together with A Retalution to have satisfaction of your Person — The first Propofall was to set your house on fire but they Concidrd that would avaiil nothing for it might be more Predgidysshal to your insfont Neighbours than to you — so they have agreed to set a watch to know whear you are at oill hours of the Day and Night and when it Is conveneant the will Cum in a bod and tak you: but not willing to Cummit Murder they will let you of with the Loss of your Tongue your 2 Eyes and your Right Arme — Every one is sworn to be true before the know what was to be Don I am one who Chanced to have the misfortune to Cum to the Society and was sworn Before I knew what was on foot and not willing to be guilty of such Crualty I therefore tak this Opetunety of aquenting you before the Lots is Drown Left it should Cum to my Lot to do the “ Deed

[Price Three-Pence.]