An Act for erecting a proper and convenient Pier, at the Port of Saint Ives, in the County of Cornwall, for the better Protection of Ships and Vessels resorting to the said Port.

And to Twenty Private Bills.

Florence, June 14. The last Letters from Rome take Notice, that on the 30th past a Third Convoy arrived at Civita Vecchia from Cadix and Malaga; consisting of Nine Vessels with 593 Jesuits on board: They were escorted by a Spanish Ship of War, which was separated from them, and was not arrived at Civita Vecchia when the last Letters came away. As the Masters of those Vessels were not permitted to debark the Jesuits there, it is supposed that they followed the two other Convoys to Corsica; but it is not yet known here, whether any of them have been permitted to land the Jesuits there.

This Court has ordered a Mourning of Six Months for the late Empress: It is very deep for the first Month; but neither the Coaches of the Court, or the Livery Servants, are put into Mourning on this Occasion.

Vienna, June 17. The Empress continues perfectly well, and recovers her Strength and Spirits very fast. She was blooded the End of last Week, but that was only by Way of Prevention, as the Physicians began to apprehend an Inflammation in her Eyes.

Venice, June 17. M. le Marquis de Paulmy D'Argenson, the French Ambassador to the Republick of Venice, arrived here last Week; and, after having paid his Court to the Royal Family, pursued his Journey to Venice.

Flamborough, June 23. The King of Denmark arrived at Slewick on the 16th Instant; and we hear that his Danish Majesty is in perfect Health, and is much pleased with such Parts as he has seen of that Dutchy. The 30th Instant continues to be the Day fixed for his Danish Majesty's Arrival at Altona. Our City is making Preparations for contributing to the Amusements of that Monarch during his Stay in our Neighbourhood.
